SAINT'S RECREATION

UPÓN THE

ESTATE OF GRACE

Containing and methodically delineating

A CHRISTIAN'S Progress, Privileges, Comforts and Duties; beginning at Conversion. Describing also the Blessed REDFEMER JESUS, both absolutely and comparatively; in spiritual Hymns and Songs: Together with a plain Paraphrase upon the Margin, confirming all by Scriptures, and explaining Difficulties.

Under the following Heads,

I. Christ's Expostulation with a stray- | VI. Typus Typorum. ing Sinner.

II. The Door of Hope.

III. The Pilgrim's Panacea; or Balm of Gilead.

IV. The holy Triplicity. V. The Bleffed Bethlehemite. VII. The Saint's Delight.

VIII. Honey-drops, or Chrystalstreams, containing a Bundle of precious Promises.

IX. The Path-way to Paradife. X. Christian Mementos.

By Mr. WILLIAM GEDDES, Minister of the Gospel first at Wick in Caithness, and after at Urguhart in Murray.

The Second EDITION, carefully corrected and revised.

To which are added.

A Supplement of fifteen select POEMS, on divine Subjects, from other approven Authors at the End.

Col. iii. 16. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wife dom; teaching and admonishing one another in Psalms and Hymns and spiritual Songs, &c.

GLASGOW:

Printed by J. BRYCE and D. PATERSON, For GEORGE PARK, School-master in GLASGOW.

MDCCLIII.

The PUBLISHER to the SUBSCRIBERS.

The former EDITION of this pious BOOK confilted of an hundred and twenty Pages, but the largeness of the Paper whereon this Edition is printed, has comprehended in an hundred Pages all that was compromised in the printed Proposals, save only the Table called TYPUS TYPORUM, which is done on an half Sheet of good writing Paper. I have added a Supplement of sisteen select Poems on Divine Subjects, from other approven Authors, at the End; and have not at the beginning stuff'd it with Encomiums of the Author, knowing what wise Solomon, in the last Chapter and last Verse of Proverbs, saith concerning a virtuous Woman, may also be said of him, His own Works praise him in the Gates.

That God may accompany the serious Reading, Meditation and Perusal of this Book with a Blessing, is the earnest Wish, and shall be the Prayer of him, who, to all his Subscribers, subscribes himself,

Their most humble Servant,

GLASGOW, April?

GEORGE PARK, Editor.

L.I.S.T

OF

SUBSCRIBERS NAMES.

WILLIAM ADAM
John Aitken, Malt-man in Glasgow
John Aitken, Weaver there
Matthew Aitken, Portioner in Lochwhinnoch

Robert Aitken, Weaver in Chappel-yards Thomas Aitkenhead, Weaver in Glasgow James Alexander, Moulterer in Seedhist-

Mills, Paisley
James Alexander, Wright in Kilbarchan,
12 Copies

John Alexander, Weaver in Tarboltoun David Allan, Hofier in Glafgow George Allan, Weaver in Shettlestoun John Allan, Weaver in Port-Glafgow John Allan, Weaver in Shettlestoun, Elder in Barrony

Robert Alian, Labourer in Shettlestoun James Anderson, Baxter in Glasgow John Andrew in Auchentiber, Parish of Neil-

Isobel Angus in Bankell, Baldernock William Angus, Portioner of Balmore Patrick Arthur, Wright in Kilbarchan William Arthur, Mason in Kilbarchan Adam Auld, Distiller in Glasgow.

R

Alexander Baird, Labourer in Sandyhills James Baird, late Deacon at Light-burn Robert Baird, Weaver in Glasgow Matthew Bar, Farmer in the Parish of Hou-

Patrick Bar, Wright at Bridge of Weir John Barbour, Senr. Merchant in Kilbarchan John Barbour, Jun. Merchant there Andrew Bayerie, Shoe-maker in Glafgow William Bell, Farmer in Greenen Mains,

Parish of Maybole
William Bell, Weaver in Glasgow
John Biggart in Croft-head, Neilstoun
Alexander Bilsland, Shoe-maker in Glasgow
John Black, Weaver there
Gavin Blackwood, Wright in Glasgow
Robert Blair
James Bogle, Coal-hewer at Shettlessoun

John Bogle, Coal-hewer at Shettlessoun
Thomas Bogle, Weaver in Glasgow
Robert Bowie in Hill-head, Baldernock
William Bowie, Weaver in Gosbals
Andrew Boyd, Taylor in Glasgow
David Boyd, Tobacconist in Glasgow
John Boyd, Rope-maker Port Glasgow
William Boyd, Rope-maker there
William Boyd, Land-labourer in Bogheads
John Brackenridge in Borland, Parish of

Craigie
Joseph Brash, Weaver in Glasgow
Claud Brock, Taylor in Glasgow
James Brock, Hosser in Auchenleak
James Brock, Taylor in Kilbowie
John Brock, Farmer in Balquhanran
John Brock, Farmer in Kilbowie
John Brock, Servitor in Balquhanran
Robert Brock, Farmer in Barns of Ciyde
Walter Brock, Taylor in Glasgow
William Brock, Shop-man in Auchenleak
George Brown, Mason in Kilbarchan
James Brown, Senr. Dyster in Gorbals
James Browster, Weaver in Glasgow
John Bryce, Printer in Glasgow
William Bryce, Merchant there
James Bryceson, Weaver in Kilbowie
Robert Bryden, Portioner of Knockbarthnock

William Bryden, Merchant in Kilbarchan Andrew Buchanan, Malt-man in Glafgow George Buchanan, Weaver in Caltoun John Buchanan, Shoemaker in Glafgow Robert Buchanan, Farmer in Shettleffoun Thomas Buchanan, Weaver in Caltoun William Buchanan, Baxter in Glafgow William Buchanan, Weaver there James Bulloch in Blarfkeith, Baldernock William Bulloch, Portiner of Blarfkeith James Burns in Monie Brock John Burnfide, Smith in Poliockshaws

Daniel Campbell, Janitor in the College of Glasgow
Daniel Campbell, Tanner in Glasgow
Dun-

Duncan Campbell, Deacon of the Gardeners in Glasgow

John Campbell, Farmer in Langlands, Tarboltour

John Campbell, Wright in Tarboltoun John Campbell, Taylor in Milnbank John Campbell, Weaver in Port-glafgow Robert Campbell, Wright in Glafgow Robert Campbell

William Campbell

James Carís, Labourer in Shettlestoun John Carís, Barber and Wigmaker in Glafgow

Samuel Chiefly, Merchant in Glasgow

James Clanney, Farmer in the Parish of Dalgane

Alexander Clark, Farmer in Balquhanran John Clark, Brazier in Mauchlane John Clark, Junr. of Wester Geven, Lochwhinnoch

John Clark, Taylor in Kilbarchan William Clark of Killochries William Cochran, Junr. of Lady-Land Alexander Colquhoun, Heritor in Geese-

Dubs John Colguhoun in Law

William Colquhoun, School-mafter in Baldernock

Robert Connell, Weaver in Glasgow Janet Corsbie, Relict of James Anderson in Shawfield

John Corsbie, Farmer in Holm, Cambuslang Mr. David Corss, Heritor in Carmile, Old Monkland Parish

David Craig, Weaver in Glasgow James Craig, Hammer-man in Thortourburn, Neilstoun

Robert Craig, Senr. in Kepally, Neilstoun Robert Craig, Junr. in Kepally, Neilstoun Thomas Craig, Carrier in Slates, Neilstoun William Craig in Foreside, Neilstoun George Crawford in Auchenhean James Crawford, Rope-maker Port-Glasgow James Crawford, Weaver in Glasgow John Crawford, Wright in Glasgow William Crawford, Weaver there William Crawford Alexander Cumming, Weaver in Glasgow

John Cumming, Weaver there William Cuthbert in Little Auchentiber

David Dalgliefh, Weaver in Glasgow Andrew Dalziel, Farmer in Long-Holm, in Dalgane Parish James Dalziel, Farmer there

Robert Darrich in Capland James Dannie, Farmer in Carntyne William Davie, Cooper in Port-Glasgow Archibald Dempster, Feuar in Tarboltoun James Dennistoun in Bardrenny John Dennistoun, Rope-maker in Port-

Glafgow Robert Denny, Farmer in Balquhannan John Dick, Farmer in Adamhill, Parish of

Craigie
John Dick, Hammer-man in Glasgow
William Dick, Smith in Shettlestown

William Dick, Smith in Shettleftoun
Allan Dickfon, Weaver in Glasgow
Adam Dinning, Weaver in Shettleftoun
Edward Dobbie, Weaver in Glasgow
Robert Dollar in Ballandroich, Balderneck
James Donald, Farmer in Broadfield
Archibald Douglas, Farmer in Balquhanran
Alexander Downie, Farmer in Bogside, Parish of Coiltoun

Robert Duncan, Merchant in Glasgow James Dunlop in Fence-Dyke, Tarboltoun Janet Dunlop, Kilmaronock

John Dunlop, Farmer in Clerkshiels, Tarboltoun

John Dunlop in Lochtichil, Tarboltoun Alexander Dykes, Smith in Shettlestoun

E

John Edmond, Callenderer in Glasgow Joseph Edmond, Clerk to the Wheat-mills of Kelvine

Alexander Ewing of Lochend, Bonhill Parish Archibald Ewing, Weaver in Glasgow Patrick Ewing, Taylor there William Ewing, Portioner of Blarwhinnan William Ewing, Weaver in Kilbarchan

F

John Farquhar, Farmer in Droichstoun William Fergus, Weaver in Carmile, Old Monkland

Daniel Ferguson, Weaver in Queenslie, Bar-

William Ferguson, Farmer in Reidstoun, Ochiltree parish

David Ferrie, Weaver in Glasgow William Ferrier, Rope-maker, Port-glasgow Andrew Fisher in Muntgarswood, Parish of

Mauchline
James Fisher there
John Fisher, Taylor there
Matthew Fisher, Shoe-maker there
Charles Finlay, Weaver in Glasgow
David Fleeming, Weaver in Paisley
John Fleeming, Weaver in Glasgow
Abraham Foreman, Weaver in Paisley
James Forsyth, Clerk to Blythwood's parker
Allan Fowlis, Wright in Port-Glasgow
John Fulton, Candle-maker in Glasgow

-

James Galbreath, School mafter in Glafgow James Gardner, Taylor in Partick John Gardner, late Deacon of the Gardeners

in Glafgow

John Gardner, Jun. Weaver in Port-Glaf-

Michael Gardner, School-mafter in Kilbarchan

William Gardner, Flax-dreffer and Heckler in Edenbarnet

John Gavin, Stay-maker in Glasgow
Robert Gibson, Weaver there
William Gibson, Farmer in Drumley
Alexander Gillies, Shoe-maker in Glasgow
John Gillies, Town-Officer there
James Glen in Gills-yard
Richard Gold, Tanner in Glasgow
George Goodale, Weaver there
David Govan, Weaver in Pollock-shaws
Allan Graham, Taylor in Glasgow
James Graham, Reed-maker there
John Graham, Taylor there
Robert Graham, Servitor there
William Graham, Clerk to the Sugar-house
Archibald Gray, Coal-hewer, Shettlestoun
William Greenlees, Shoe-maker in Glasgow
Mr. John Grierson, Heritor in Shettlestoun

H

James Hall, Weaver in Pollock-shaws John Hamilton in Greenfide James Hardie, Weaver in Gorbals Andrew Harvie, Farmer in Barhill George Harvie, School-master in Glasgow James Harvie, Weaver in Glasgow William Harvie, Hammer-man in Yolker Alexander Haltridge, Smith in Nethertown John Hay, portioner in Gartclash John Hay, Stabler in Glafgow William Hay, Maltman there James Henderson, Merchant in Glasgow James Henderson, Elder in Barrony Parish Robert Henderson, Mariner in Glasgow ohn Hendry of Barrowstoun David Hill, Coal-hewer in Lightburn William Hodgson, Taylor in Glasgow James Holm, Portioner of Tandlemuir ohn Honeyman, Flax-dreffer in Kilbarchan ames Hood, Feuar in Tarboltoun ohn Hood, Shoe-maker there William Hood, Feuer there Adam Howie, Clock-maker in Dullars,

Rickardtoun parish
William Humphray, Feuar in Tarboltoun
Hugh Hunter, Farmer in Barmuirhill
James Hunter, Servitor to Henry Ritchie

in Tongue

William Hunter, Overseer of Mr. Cameron's Coal-work

John Hutchison, Barber and Wig-maker in Glasgow

T

John Jack, Weaver in Shettlestoun William Jack, Coal Cutter there Archibald Jackson, Farmer in Mid-Cotes, Cambuslang James Jackson, Wright in Gorbals

James Jackson, Wright in Gorbals
Alexander Jamieson, Shoe-maker in Glas-

Michael Jamieson, Cooper in Port-Glasgow Patrick Jamieson, Inn keeper in Tarboltoun William Jestrey, Shoe-maker in St. Ninians William Jestrey, Baker in Glasgow James Inglis, Merchant there Walter Johns, Taylor in Glasgow James Johnstoun, Smith at St. Ninians James Johnstoun, Weaver in Glasgow John Johnstoun, Wright in Port-Glasgow William Junkine, Mason in Tarboltoun

K

John Keir, Weaver in Glasgow Joseph Keir, Weaver there Archibald Kennedy, Farmer in Crosthead, parish of Air

James Kay, Farmer in Croft-foot, parish of Dalgane

Mr. William Kidstown, Student of Divinity William King, Barber and Wig-maker in Glasgow

James Kinnyburgh, Farmer in Carntyne John Kinnyburgh, Grieve to the Coal-work there

William Kirkland, Barber and Wig-maker in Glasgow

Adam Kirkwood, Printer there
James Kirkwood, Farmer in Burntoun, parith of Ayr

L

Alexander Laird, Taylor in Kilbarchan
James Laird, in North Branchill
John Lattie in Little Hills
Claud Lang in Drumtocher
George Lang, Maltman there
John Lang, Millner there
Robert Lang there
James Laurie, Maltman in St. Ninians
William Laurie, Weaver in Camfbarron
Archibald Leckie, Shoe-maker in Kilpatrick
Patrick Leckie, late Deacon of the Coopers in Glasgow

John Leechman, Weaver in Glasgow William Leechman, Hammer-man there David David Lees, Farmer in Loch-hill, parish of James Manson, Weaver in Tarboltoun John Lees, Portioner in Milnburn, Tar-

Samuel Lees, Farmer in Croft-head, Tar-

James Lethem, School-master in Glafgow Joseph Lightbody, Hat-maker there James Lindfay, Flax dreffer and Heckler in Houstoun

William Lindsay, Callenderer in Glasgow James Litfler, Wright in Kilbarchan Mrs. Nicolas Logan, Daughter of Walter

Logan of East Cameron Walter Logan in Blarneil William Logan, Kilmaronock parish John Love, Labourer in Burntshields Robert Love, Weaver in Glafgow Joleph Lyon, School-master there.

Mr. James Main, Son to the Laird of William Millar, Weaver in Glasgow Powes, in the parish of Logie John Mack Adam, Currior in Glafgow Quintine MacAdam, Cooper there Charles MacArthur, Weaver there James MacArthur, Malt-man in Pollock-

Gabriel M'Claren, Farmer in Balquhanran Daniel M'Donald, Weaver in Gorbals Finlay M'Echnie, Merchant in Glasgow William M'Echnie, Weaver there Malcolm M'Farland, Brick-maker in Kil-

Patrick M'Farland, Taylor in Glasgow William M'Farland, Taylor there. William M'Farland, Weaver there Gilbert M'Hutchison at Milliken William M'llquham, Wright in Little Mill John M'Intyre, Chirurgeon in Kinlochelvie Tames M'Kean, Merchant in Glafgow Andrew M'Keun, Wright there William M'Keun, Hammer-man there Daniel M'Lachlan, Weaver there John M'Lachlan in Torwood Walter M'Lachlan, Weaver in Gorbals Andrew M'Lean, Merchant in Glasgow Donald M'Lean, Printer there Robert M'Lintock, Merchant there Alexander M'Murrich, Farmer in Auchenleak

John M'Murrich, Farmer there John M'Nab, Shoe-maker in Kilbowie John M'Nair, Weaver in Glasgow Robert M'Nair, Farmer in Barns of Clyde Neil M'Neil, Shoe-maker in Glasgow. George M'Taggart, Malt-man there ames Maitland, Gardener there David Malcom in Stand-alone

James Marshal, Portioner of Balmore, Baldernock John Marshall in Kilbowie Mrs. Marshall in Anderstoun John Martin, Flesher in Tarboltoun William Martin, Farmer in Broom-Dyke, Neilstoun

Alexander Matthie, Hammer-man in Glafgow

Robert Matthie, Wright there John Maxwell, Weaver there Thomas Mearns

William Menzies, Weaver in Lees Alexander Millar, Merchant in Glasgow Andrew Millar, Flax-Dreffer in Edenbarnet James Millar, Merchant in Kilbarchan John Millar, Baxter there John Millar in Sandyhills, Barrony Mrs. Millar, Relict of Andrew Millar,

Malt-man Robert Milliken, Weaver there Thomas Mitchel, Labourer in Tarboltoun John Moffat, Weaver in Glasgow William Moffat, Labourer in Shettlestoun David Monro, Cooper in Port-Glasgow William Monro, Cooper there Hugh Moodie, School-master in Glasgow Andrew Morison, Weaver there Andrew Morison Weaver there George Morison, Farmer in Kilbowie James Morison, School-master in Cambuslang John Morison, Farmer in Kilbowie Robert Morison, Farmer there William Morison, Farmer there John Morton, Weaver in Sandyhills, Bar-

William Morton, Shoe-maker in Tarboltous Margaret Mossman in Holm, Cambuslang Andrew Motherwill, Weaver in Shettle-

John Muir, Weaver in Sandyhills John Muir in Parish of Coyltoun Thomas Muir, Currior in Glafgow James Murdoch, Weaver in Kilmarnock ohn Murdoch, Hammerman in Barshegrie Thomas Murdoch, Weaver in Glafgow Zacharias Murdoch, Merchant in Glasgow Charles Murray, Barber and Wig-maker

John Murray in parish of Coyltoun John Murray, Weaver in Glasgow

Thomas Nairn, M. A. Student of Divinity William Napier, Cooper in Port-Glafgow David Neil, Ditcher in Tarboltoun James James Neil, Farmer in Nethertown of Allaway, parish of Ayr Allan Neilson, Indweller in Glasgow James Nisbit, Merchant in Glasgow William Nisbit, Weaver in Sandyhills

John Orr in Anchenhean John Orr in Little-hills ohn Orr Robert Orr, Farmer in Geven, Lochwhin-Robert Orr, Labourer in Bogfide, Tarbol-Robert Orr, Weaver in Kilbarchan

Allan Ofburn, Kirk-Officer, Tarboltoun

Mr. William Pagan, Mafter of the Wester Sugar-house, Glasgow Gabriel Park, Saw-wright there George Park, Meal-merchant in Partick Robert Park, Merchant in Glasgow William Park, Farmer in Kilbowie John Parker, Farmer in Torhill James Parland, Weaver in Glasgow David Paterson, Printer there, James Paterson, Shoe-maker there Peter Paterson, Malt-man in Yolker Peter Paterson, Mason there Robert Paterson, Wright there William Patrick, Weaver in Glasgow Alexander Patoun, Coal-hewer in Lightburn, David Patoun, Coal-hewer there James Patoun, Smith Tarboltoun John Penman, Deacon of the Coal-hewers at Lightburn Jasper Pennycook, Hosier in Glasgow lames Perry, Farmer in Cairngillian John Pinkerton, Weaver in Anderstoun Walter Pinkerton, Mason in Kilbarchan John Pollock, Portioner of Overtown, Lochwhinnoch James Porter, Coal-cutter in Shettlestoun John Porter, Weaver in Caltoun Andrew Pringle, Indweller in Tarboltoun Andrew Purdon, Labourer in Shettlestoun

Mr. John Robison of Boghall John Ramfay, Coal-hewer, Shettlestoun Thomas Ramfay, Reed-maker, Glasgow John Rankin, Tobacconist there John Rankin, Ballendroich, Baldernock George Reid, Merchapt in Glasgow

Robert Reid, Baker in Glasgow Thomas Reid, Weaver there William Reid, Mason and Wright in Kilbarchan Robert Renfrew in Backlug, Neilfloun James Restoun, Weaver in Shettlestoun William Ritchie, Weaver in Glasgow James Rob, Farmer in Fail, Tarboltoun James Rob, Farmer in Shettlestoun, Bar-Michael Rob, Gardner in Glasgow Gershom Robertoun, Weaver in Glasgow William Robertoun, Weaver there Andrew Robertson, Printer there Andrew Robertson, Taylor there Duncan Robertson, Merchant there James Robertson in Slates, parish of Neil-John Robin, Servitor to John Corsbie in Holm Hugh Rodger, Millner in Carmile James Rodger, Weaver in Glasgow John Rodger, Cartor there Thomas Ross, Farmer in Shettlestoun HughRowand of Green-head, parish of Govan John Rowand, Cooper in Port-Glafgow ohn Rowand, Weaver in Glafgow William Rowand, Printer there

David Russel, Merchant in Glasgow

James Ruthven, Weaver there

William Samson, Farmer in Spierstous, parish of Ochiltree Andrew Scot, Officer of his Majefty's Excise George Scot, Merchant in Glafgow John Scot, Rope-maker, Port-Glafgow John Scot, Tanner in Glafgow William Scot in Mid Branchill James Shanks, Weaver in Shettleftoun John Shaw, Merchant in Glasgow Robert Shaw, School-mafter in Shettleftoun, 12 copies William Shearer, Shopman in Sandy-hills William Sibbot, Wright in Glasgow Robert Simson, Weaver there Miss Peggie Simson, daughter of John Sim-fon, Writer in Cannongate John Sinclair William Sloan, Farmer in Plot-Cock, parish of Ochiltree John Smellie, Former in Shettleftoun John Smellie, Weaver there Walter Smith, Merchant in Glasgow Robert Smith in Hillhead, Baldernock William Snodgrafs, Callenderer in Gla gow Archibald Speir, Portioner in Burntshields

Robert Spier, Merchant at Bridge of Weir

Andrew Spreul in Caudon Muir, Neilstoun Robert Spreul in Hou-Craigs, Neilstoun, James Steel, Weaver in Glasgow William Steel, Stay-maker in Saltcoats Robert Steuart, Landsman in Kilbarchan Thomas Steuart, Portioner of Barford, Lochwhinnoch parish

William Steuart, Shoe-maker in Glasgow William Steuart, Weaver in Shottlestoun Ebenezer Steven, Weaver in Glasgow Robert Steven, Church-officer, Baldernock Robert Steven, Indweller in Glasgow James Stevenson, Weaver in Gorbals John Stevenson in Caudon-hall, Neilstoun Robert Stevenson, Copper-smith in Glasgow Andrew Strathorn, Millner in Millnburn-milln

David Strang, Shop-keeper in Glafgow Francis Strang, Copper-fmith there Robert Strang, School-mafter there Alexander Suttor, Wright in Glafgow

T

William Templeton, Mason and Carver Glasgow

Robert Tennant, Mason in Carmile George Thomas, Candle-maker in Glasgow Alexander Thomson, School-master there James Thomson, Tobacconist in Paisley John Thomson, Vintner at Bridge-end of Calder

Peter Thomson, Junr. Maltman in Glasgow William Thomson, Portioner of Adam-hill in parish of Craigie

William Thomson, Smith in Cotes, Cambusiang

John Tod, Weaver in Glasgow William Turnbull, Merchant there Alexander Tyler, Cooper in Port-Glasgow W

David Waddel, Merchant in Glafgow
John Walker, Weaver there
William Walker, Hammer-man there
Andrew Wallace, Weaver there
John Wallace, Weaver there
George Wardrop, Merchant there, 2 Copies
John Wardrop, Smith in Lightburn
John Wardrop, Smith in Glafgow
Archibald Watchman Coal-hewer in Lightan

Adam Watson, Weaver in Glasgow
William Watson, Wright in Barshegrie
Patrick White, Baker in Glasgow
William White, Weaver in Paissey
John Whitehill in Haltridge
John Whitelaw, Indweller in Glasgow
Thomas Wight, Cooper in Tarboltoun
Adam Wilson, Farmer in Hill-side, Taraboltoun

Robert Wilson, Jun. Weaver in Cochney Rose Wilson in Holm, Cambussang Walter Wilson, Weaver in Glasgow, William Wilson, Farmer in Burn-house, Tarboltoun

William Wilson, Farmer in Hill-fide, Tarboltoun

William Wilson, Farmer in Queenstie William Winning, Coal hewer in Shettlestoun, Elder in Barrony

James Witherfoord, late Deacon of the Hammer-men in Glafgow

Y

James Young in Neilstoun Robert Young, Cooper in Glasgow

THE

SAINT'S RECREATION

UPON THE

ESTATE OF GRACE:

IN TWO PARTS.

- I. CHRIST's Expostulation with a straying
- II. The Sinner's Conversion and Recovery.

PART I.

THAT is the cause, poor Soul, thou dost fo stray

From me thy LORD, and from the righteous way?

(a) Was this thy oath when thou with me (a) By baptiff mal yows and cov'nanted? afterwards.

Where are the vows which thou so freely granted?

II.

(b) Am I not LORD of light, of life and love? (b) Enumera-Am I not he to thee so kind did prove? Did I not know thee by my eye all-feeing? I knew thy mould before thou hadft a being. Ш.

tion of mercies spiritual and temporal, positive and . privative.

III.

(c) Ezek. 16. (c) A wretched Babe thou wast in sin sirst born, 3. Eph. 2. 1. (c) A wretched Babe thou wast in sin sirst born, Under God's wrath and curse; and so forlorn. Might'st thou not been a monster formless Creature?

Whilst I have given a perfect comely feature?

IV.

I did myself of royal robes divest, And cloath'd me with thy nature for thy rest. I scourged was, and crowned with the thorn, The cross I bare, for thee I suffered scorn.

V.

The gospel-light I gave thee to direct;
A guard of angels ready to protect;
My Sp'rit to warn, and be thy gracious guide:
Yet from my precepts thou dost ever slide.

VI.

I gave thee food and raiment, health and peace. Myself I gave for thy poor soul's release; And yet to me unkind thou still wast proving, And dost not labour to requite my loving.

VII.

(d) Mercies privative, or From Satan (d), sin, and hell I made thee free: deliverance from all evils

A ransom, sacrifice and propitiation I

Was, divine Justice for to satisfy.

VIII.

VIII.

I kept thee from the famine, and the fword: From pestilence, and did all good afford: From shameful sin, and from flagitious crimes; From Satan's snares in these consused times.

IX.

That Satan might not fright thee, nor posses: From madness, sudden death and all distress; From sickness fore; and sting of conscience fell: I keeped thee from dropping into hell.

X.

I did thee gently chasten with the rod (e); That thou might'st mind thy duty to thy God: But when the rod was off, with Pharaoh vain Thou wallow'd in the mire of sin again.

(e) Incorrigibleness under the rod.

XI.

This was not all; (f) I promis'd thee a crown, of Mercies Even heav'ns glory, riches and renown, If thou should'st serve me, yet thy fruit is small; Thou wanders from me like the Prodigal.

XII.

Where is thy faith? where is thy fervent love? Where is thy zeal, and works, thy faith to prove? Beware, like Laodicea, thou me force Thee to reject with dolorous divorce.

XIII.

If thou do not repent and soon return, And for thy many sins thou do not mourn; If answer not my mercies to thee shown, I'll thee reject and never more thee own.

B 2

PART

PART II.

Containing the penitent Sinners Conversion and Recovery.

I.

WHAT thundering voice is this I hear? who calls?

Is this the voice of CHRIST from heav'n that Confession of Sin.

I sleeping was, and pampered with all pleasure; But now I see my sin's above all measure!

II

Justly, O LORD, might'st thou from me depart; Justly might'st thou my sinful Soul desert: For most ungrate I heretofore was proving; And most unworthy of such matchless loving.

III.

O! what am I, thou should'st so kindly call? And did not suffer in the pit to fall; Since I have from my God so long departed, No wonder that for sin I fore had smarted.

IV.

Slighting of calls and parnings.

Thy calls I did repell, thy word I slighted:
Thy Sp'rit I quench'd: thy rods when they have lighted,

I did not hear their voice; nor mercies prized; But I have done what Satan hath devised.

V

My fins in number they are like the fand, By breaking of thy righteous command; For quality, atrocious, great offences: I finn'd with foul and the external fences.

nd

?

at

e;

t;

1.

Acknowledgment of Sin in its quantity and quality.

VI.

My fins are many, yet no more than thou Canst freely pardon, O my God most true! My fin is great, yet is thy mercy greater: I run to thee, there is no Saviour better.

VII.

Thou past by angels, and hast sent thy Son In human nature, our poor souls to win. Thou raises up the soul that is dejected, And thou hast not the weary soul rejected.

Extolling of God's mercies and recourse theres

VIII.

Thy promise is to seek the soul that's lost:
Thy promise is to comfort all that's crost.
I've lost myself, come now, sweet Lord, and save me:

I cleave to thee my God, O do not leave me.

IX.

With blinks of mercy thou dost wretches view: Thy glory is, in weakness strength to shew. Thy mercy is on those that have no merit, That heirs of wrath great glory may inherit.

X.

A great oecafion of the ing is bad example.

When multitudes I faw in the broad way. finner's fray- I took delight with them to go aftray. Disdainfully thy precepts I did trample, Thy promise sweet, thy threats, and saints example.

XI.

Vicious extremities of the times.

The many by-paths have my foul deceived; And have me of my Saviour near bereaved; Some not for peace, some not for piety, Some not for truth, some like the Pharisee.

XII.

Some live so loose, as minding not a judge, No God, no hell, no heav'n a foul to lodge; Some Laodicean like, they care not whether Religion fink or fwim, fools altogether!

XIII.

Some feeming godly, yet they have no love No Christian works, their fruitful faith to prove: Some loyal (and good reason) to great Caesar; But to serve God, have neither time nor leasure.

XIV.

Some pious-like, and yet disown a king, As if rebellion were no hainous thing: Some place religion in their vain opinion, Some in debates about the best dominion.

XV.

Some place Religion in most base reviling The men of God, their own poor Soul's beguiling:

Some in proud Korah's arrogant rebelling. And yet they fancy heav'n to be their dwelling.

XVI

Sometimes I followed one, fometimes the other: Sometimes I jarr'd with father and with mother For trivial things: O poor distracted I! And many things I did, I knew not why.

XVII.

I now perceive all these are sinful themes, Impertinent, and vicious extremes. I'll now betake me to the good old way Of thy dear faints, and more I will not stray.

XVIII.

I now perceive, Satan hath many wiles And fly devices which the foul beguiles; And that he may bereave me of my right, Sometimes * an angel feems to be of light.

XIX.

I know now what the Lord of me defires: Peace, truth and mercy, justice he requires +, + Mic. 6. 8. To be renewed in the inner-man, And bring forth fruits with all the strength I can.

XX.

XX.

If to myself severe, to others mild,
Sweet, gentle, calm and harmless as a child:
The fear of God, and loyalty to Casar:
To all men love: in this he takes great pleafure.

XXI.

I purpose, Lord, to live no more in sin;
I strayed long, but now I will begin
To serve the LORD with all my heart and strength;
That heav'ns bliss I may enjoy at length.

XXII.

Begone, then fin and Satan, worldly toys,
You stop my Christian course, you marr my joys.

Draw me, O LORD, and then I'll follow thee, I'll fing thy praises to eternity.

THE

THE

DOOR OF HOPE; OR, A

RDIAL

FOR A

FAINTING SOUL

Affording some further Encouragement to draw near unto GOD, and to adventure on the scepter of mercy, from the consideration of the fulness and freeness of GOD's bounty and clemency, and from absolute, and conditional promifes, such, as poor Sinners can lay hold upon.

RUT now (a) I find my foul revive, I find some cordial Cheering my sp'rit, that I may live, Allaying bitter gall.

Glad tidings I begin to hear,

Sion doth mercy fing: (b) Sweet JESUS can me draw full near Unto Jehovah King.

(c) Thou art most gracious, wife and strong, Thou King of Heav'n most high,

(d) Therefore I'll wait and not think long, Till thou fend fome fupply.

(e) A supplicant thrown at thy feet, Thy mercy to implore:

(f) I'll beg and knock till alms I get, I'll wait at heav'ns door.

(a) Some dawning og glimmering light of comfort to a fainting Soul from the confideration of 'God's mercy.

(b) Eph. 2. 12, 13.

(c) God's wifdom, power, and goodness are 3 great pillars of a Christian's confidence. (d) Pfalm 27. ult. Pfal. 130. 5, 6. (e) The foul's resolution to (f) Mat. 7.7.

III.

III.

Necessity makes me to wait;
I cannot find but here;
I will with humble sp'rit and meek
Unto my God draw near.

(g) The incomprehencomprehen(g) When I begin for to recount fible greatness
Thy mercies manifold;
of God's

(b) Pfal. 51. What pen or tongue have told.

IV.

(i) Rom. 11. (i) They're high, they're deep, they're long and broad,

(k) They reach the starry frame, They're over all thy works, O God, To magnify thy name.

(1) The freenefs of God's (1) The freeness of thy goodness great, nercy.

Makes me for to conceive,

Hol. 14. 4. That such a wretch may mercy get;

And this I humbly crave.

V

(m) Ezek. 16. 3, 4, 6. It is thy (m) glory to extend Mifery the Thy mercy, where there is fitteff object No merit; then thy mercy fend, of mercy. And let me have the bliss. (n) Pfal. 51. 8 .-- 38. 2, 3. I'm fick in fin, (n) both blind and lame, (o) Ifa. 35. 5, 6. Rev. 3. (o) Poor, and a wretched flave; 17. 2Tim. 2. An object fit for mercy am: 26. Fulness of Oh let me mercy have. God's mercy.

(p) Pfal. 103.
11, 12. Ex.

34. 6.
Abfolute pro. (p) Thy treasure is so full of grace, miss.
1. Sending
2 Saviour.

Nothing can it impare:

Thou

Thou ever gives and hast no less;
O, let me have a share.

Thou fent a Mediator (q) good, When man did not require,

Ev'n this Messias for his need, When none could give an hire. (q) Gen. 3. 15. Ifa. 7.14. A Saviour is fent to an ungrate world.

VII.

Since thou hast sent, and he is come, Of meer free love and grace;

Oh, do bestow on me (r) a crumb Of mercy for solace.

d

Thou fent (f) unto the Gentiles light, When they by fin most vile,

(s) Had lost all interest and right, And under sad exile.

VIII.

(t) Thou mad'st the barren woman bear More than the married wife;

(u) Thou gav'st the olive wild a share In promises of life.

Then I am one of Japhet's race, O do not me exclude:

Give me a drop of faving grace, Though but a spurious brood.

IX.

Thou promifest the stony (v) hearts. To mollify, and then,

To write thy law (w) in inward parts Of worthless wretched men.

I find this promise absolute,

To those who have no grace:

Thou'rt found of those who sought thee not (x), quire it not.

(y) O peerless Prince of Peace.

(r) Mat. 15.

2. Calling of the Gentiles being Idolaters.

(f) Ifa. 54.

(s) Eph. 2. 12, 13.

(e) Ifa. 54. 1.

(u) Rom,

To take away the stony heart. (v) Ezek. 11.19. (w) Pz. 36. 26. Jer. 31.

4. To extend mercy to these who require it not.
(x) Is 65.24.
(y) Is 9. 6.

* To wit, * If these be free, why shall I then those pro-Myself from thence seclude? mifes. (z) Ifa. 55. 1. When God excepts no (z) mortal man, Mat. 11. 28. Joh. 7. 37. That's come of Adam's feed. Gal. 3. 28. + Of the Their + ocean-fulness (a) can supply promifes, All that I stand in need: (a) Eph. 3. 20. Rom. 10: They're precious, (b) for they purchas'd be 12. Ja. 1. 5. 6. 17. Eph. (c) By Christ's most precious blood.

20. The freeness of thy promises The grounds Breeds hope: their fulness suits of comfort and waiting. All my defects; their preciousness With all my wants it meets.

(d) Acts 17. 2 1. Jos. 3.11. Pfal. 46. 7.

(b) 2 Pet. 1.5. (c) 2 Cor. 1.

> (d) Thy fovereign supremacy Makes me thee wait upon; As well becomes a wretch to ly At thy feet while I moan.

> > XII.

ness of God's promifes, in promiting bimfelf. 2 Cor. 6. 16. Rev. 7. 15. --- 21. 3. 11a. 60. 1.

(e) The greate (e) Thou fay'st thou'lt with thy people dwell, And give thyself to them: Thou'lt be their God, and then they shall

> Thy glorious works proclaim, Oh, what am I but dust and clay? And wilt thou condescend

With me to lodge? O happy day! Come then thy mercy fend.

XIII.

(f) My heart thy house do thou prepare (f) Ifa. 57. $ 1 --- 66. 4. For thee that glorious guest; For I have no delicious fare For fuch a royal feast.

(g) Bus

(g) But usher in thy (b) Sp'rit, and he
Will give what may thee please:
Then, welcome, welcome shall thou be;
This will my spirit raise.

XIV.

O give then that good Sp'rit of grace,
(i) In thy way to conduct;

(k) He to my conscience will give peace,
(l) And plainly me instruct.

In Christ the vine (m) he will me graff, (n) And wholly me renew.

(0) All fears and tears he will drive off, (p) And be my feal most true.

XV.

In midst of every (q) stormy blast Of sad vexation,

Assures me of my interest In thy Salvation.

Against the fiery (r) serpent's sting Of strong tentation,

He me defends; so that I sing With consolation.

XVI.

He'll give his Son, if that I call In truth and verity;

Who will to me prove † All in All, And cure my mifery.

So shall the blessed (f) Trinity
Take me to be their own;

Henceforth no fin or mifery Shall my poor foul cast down. (g) Promife of the Spirit.
(b) Joh. 14.
26.--16. 13.
Luke xi. 13.
Effects of the Spirit.

.(i) 1. Direction. John 16. 13. (k) 2. Paci-Scation. Joh. 14. 27. (1) 3. Information. Joh. 14. 26. (m) 4. Spiritual Infition. Jo.35 .-- 15.1. (n) 5. Renovation, Ez. 36. 26. Eph. 4. 23, 24. (o) 6. Confolation. Joh. 14. 26. (p) 7. Confirmation and ratification. Eph. 4. 30. Eph. 1. 13. (9) Ro. 8. 15. 16,17.35.38, (r) 8. Protection. Joh. 14. 26 .-- 16, 13.

Promise of his Son. Mat. 17. 5. Joh. 1. 12.

† Ph. 3.8,9. 1Cor.3.21.22

(f) Joh. 14.

XVII.

XVII.

XVIII.

CHRIST'S He'll wisdom (s) be, to give me light: fulness. He's righteousness to clear: (s)1Cor.1.36. Lest divine justice do me fright, He pay'd a ranfom dear.

He is SANCTIFICATION.

Me wholly to renew:

He'll work me full Redemption, For he's a Saviour true.

I'm ready for to fall:

And yet for mercy call.

That cures a wounded foul.

(u) On thee his care did roll.

XIX.

As a person ready to be drowned, is preferved by laying hold on twiggs, on Into that gulf prepar'd of old, the bank of the river; fo fpair, is rea foul at the * But of these twiggs I take some hold, wived by the consideration Thou art that sweet Samaritan (t), of absolute of God's full Thou never did'st reject that man cies. (t) Luke 10.

promises, and 33, 34. (u) 1Pet. 5.7. John 6. 37.

Pfal. 55. 22.

Conditional

The weary-laden (v) thou dost call, That they may come to thee: promifes. (v) Mat. 11.

Thou'lt ease them of their burden all, And cure their mifery.

(w)16.55.2,3. Thou promis'd life to them (w) who hear; (x) Mat. 5.6. (x) The hungry foul to fill. Ifa. 55. 1, 2.

(1) Joh.3.37. (y) The thirsty soul with wine to chear, Of consolation still.

XX.

(2) Pf.50.15. They're fav'd, who call upon (z) thy name, Joel 2. 32. Who knock at mercies gate: (a) Joh.3.16. (a) They who believe, meet with the same,

And who their (b) fins do hate.

Who

Upon the Estate of Grace.

23

(c) Who in thy precepts way do go,
By them, their life to square,
Thou wilt to them salvation show:
They ever blessed are.

(c) Pf. 119: 1. Pfal. 50. 23.

XXI.

- I hear, I pray, I do believe, Lord help my unbelief:
- O do my filly foul relieve From all my pain and grief.
- I'm forry for my finful falls, Thy voice I will obey:
- I'll answer when on me thou calls: Alas! too long I stray.

XXII.

'Tis by thy grace that I intend, To turn to thee again:

'Tis thy free grace that must amend My conversation vain:

(d) The will, the work is all of thee, My sp'ritual thoughts each one:

(e) Then, crown this work begun in me And fend Salvation.

(d)Phil,2.13.

All ascribed to God's free grace.

(e) Phil. 1. 6, Heb. 12. 2.

XXIII.

(f) But now I see the day appear, The morning-star arise;

The fun of Righteousness draws near, Fair (g) Phabus from the skies.

O shine upon my filly soul,

With warming beams of light;

On thee, my burden I do roll, O glorious King of might. (f) A transition to the treatise of Christ.

(g) The Sun fo called by the Latin Poets.

THE

PILGRIM'S PANACEA;

O R,

BALM OF GILEAD:

Holding forth (1.) the restauration, or redemption of lost mankind, how it was decreed, and gradually revealed, until the nativity of our blessed SAVIOUR. (2.) Of CHRIST's nativity, his matchless person, his divine and human natures, his all-sufficiency to save, with an introduction to his offices.

I.

(a) Rom. 5. THO' Saran, death and hell conspire (a), To throw me in Tartarean fire;

Yet some of Adam's wretched race
(b) Eph. 2. 8. (b) Rescu'd shall be by God's free grace.

II.

Salvation de-Before the earth foundation (c) took, creed.
(c) Rom. 8, It written was in heav'ns book;
26. Eph.1.4. Eternal and a firm decree
In council of the Trinity,

III.

Should be a living (d) Corner-stone:

(e) Eph. 1.

In him were some (e) Elect to be

(f) Jer. 18.6.

(f) Choice vessels to eternity.

IV.

Did that immense, eternal God, In light who hath a firm abode, One essence in blest Trinity, Three persons in that Unity. The devout fouls pious reflection upon the confideration of God's free grace.

V.

Who from none else doth seek supply,

(For in him all perfections be)

(g) My good to him doth not extend; For why his glory hath none end:

s

,

.

(g) Pfal. 16.

VI

Did that great Jove my bliss contrive?

Me wretched worm to keep alive?

To keep me from eternal fire,

When hellish powers did conspire?

VII.

How shall poor I, then thankful prove, For this great mercy, this free love? My soul shall all her (h) powers bend, Him to extol, world without end.

(b) Pf. 105.1.

VIII.

To Adam (i) this was first reveal'd
When to tentation he did yield:
He trembling run (k) himself to hide:
God's presence he could not abide.

Redemption and Salvation revealed. (i) Gen. 3.15. (k) Gen. 3.8.

IX.

When guilty of Apostacy,
By tasting the forbidden tree,
Horror of conscience did him fright:
Ill-doers always shun the light.

X.

the covenant of gracewhich

by the Medi-

ground upon fuch fcriptures as thefe,

is betwixt God and man

God frowns, good angels do forfake, The heav'n is shut, th' insernal-lake Is ready to receive: and fo Nothing remains but wrath and wo.

XI.

(1) Exod. 14. But he whose (1) opportunity 10. 10. Is wretches great extremity; 1Sam. 23.26. Ezek. 16.4.5, He who dispenses every lot, (m) Is found of them that fought him not 6, &cc. (m) Ifa. 65. 1. 2. 4.

XII.

He calls for Adam, of free Grace, And preach'd to him a bleffed peace. Come, Adam, thou hast greatly sinn'd Yet with me thou may'ft mercy find.

XIII.

(1) Gen 3.17. Afflictions sharp thou (1) must endure, 18, 19. But thy falvation shall be fure. (a) Gen. 3.15. I shall thee send a (o) blessed seed.

And he shall bruise the Serpent's head.

XIV.

(p) Some di- This is the Covenant of grace, flinguish the Which brings my foul fo fweet folace. covenant of redemption. There is (p) a gracious paction which is betwixtGod the Betwixt the Father and the Son. Father, and the Son from

XV. And by the Son, with Adam's race, Who should repent, and seek his grace.

ator Jasus, The Son unto the Father spake, I will man's nature on me take.

XVI

XVI.

I will myself a ransom give,

For the Elect that they may live:

Come, Son, (quoth he) if thou do so,

They shall be safe from hell and wo.

Acts. 20, 28, 1 Cor. 6, 20. 1 Pet. 1, 18. Acts 23, compared with Pfal. 2, 7. Eph. 1, 3, 4, C. See Dickfon's Therapeutica Sacra 1, 1, c. 4,

XVII.

The Father to poor man he faith,
If thou believe with faving faith,
In this my Son; I'll give thee peace:
Eternal love shall thee embrace.

XVIII.

The Lord did promise ev'n the same To faithful father (q) Abraham; That in his seed all should be blest, And get from him eternal rest.

XIX.

This promise grows more (r) full and clear Till that the full time did draw near: So that Messiah's (s) time and (s) place The prophets told, Israels race.

XX.

This bleffed feed who glorious is,
Prefigur'd (t) was by facrifice:
By types and shadows (u) many one,
Ev'n to his Incarnation.

XXI.

This feed is that Messias great;
Eternal God without all date:
Hence doth my drooping soul yet live:
For he salvation (v) will me give.

The Promife renewed to A. brabam, and the Meffias refirided to his Family and offspring. (9) Gen. 12. 3. ---18. 18. The gradual clearing and confirming of the covenant of grace.

(r) H.b.1.1.

(f) Dan. 9.

24, 25.

(i) Mic. 5, 2.

CHRIST
and redemption by him typified by facrifices and ceremonies.
(t) Col. 2.
16, 17.
Heb. 7. 8. 94
(u) Heb. 10.1.

(m'Acts4.72.

The comfort-fame that Fo-

fbua, that is, to fave.

which the

is anointed.

1. For he was able endow - ments to be our King,

Priest, and

CHRIST'S

Mativity. (4) Luke 2.

9, 10, 15,

Prophet, Pf. 45. 7. John 3. 34. (a) Col. 1.19.

furnished

CHRIST.

XXII.

His Birth, his life, his death and all His acts and fufferings great and small, (w) Mat. 9. (70) Are Balfam for my bleeding wound; 12, 13. In him alone Salvation's found. Mal. 4. 2.

XXIII.

I'll now my meditation raise: (x) For this the Angels doth amaze. (x) 1 Pet. 1.12. I'll foar on contemplations wings, Admiring these celestial things.

XXIV.

able names O how great sweetness JESU LORD, and titles of Thy very names my foul afford! whereof fee more in Song For, IESUS, that's a Saviour (y) fure, To give my foul a foveraign cure, (y) Mat.1.25. TESUS is the XXV.

CHRIST, that's the chief (z) anointed one; (z) That fame To him a parallel is none; Hebrew word Messiah, that Not with that oyl material, Prescrib'd by law levitical; John 1. 41.--4.25. Ifa..61.

XXVI.

with all fuit. But with the Sp'rit above all measure, Hence is my life, my joy, my treasure. Transcendent (a) gifts (I know right well) He hath, my foul to keep from hell.

XXVII.

(b) O joyful tidings do I hear, At Bethlehem in a heav'nly quire; The angels fing and shout for joy, When Christ was born, that blessed Boy.

XXVIII.

To God be glory, (c) peace on Earth, Good will to men, O blessed birth!

Go, shepherds, go, and leave your tent, This day to you a Saviour's sent. (c) Luke 2.

XXIX.

To Bethlehem run and him behold, Of whom the prophets have foretold.

Ye shall the great Messiah see, In whom all nations blessed be. CHRIST'S immaculate and wonderful conception, and union of the divine and human na-tures.

XXX.

The wonder first (for to begin)

A man is born quite free (d) of sin,

(e) The like was not since Adam's fall; This cleanses sin Original.

(d) Mat. 1.20. Luke 1. 35. (e) Job 24. 4. Pial. 51. 5.

XXXI.

Another thing I do admire,

3

III.

That God Eternal comes so near.

My nature (f) frail he did affume; This keeps me from a difmal doom. (f)Heb 2.16. 17. Ifa. 7. 14. John 1. 14. Mat. 1. 16.

XXXII.

If God and man, none can fo well, God and lost mankind (g) reconcile.

This (h) Theanthropos only can Make peace for finful wretched man.

(g) Col. 1. 20, 21, 22. (b) That is God-man in one Person.

XXXIII.

If God, he cannot but (i) prevail:

If man, (k) my brother will not fail

To plead for me, that hainous crimes

May not condemn in judging times.

CHRIST'S all-fufficiency to remove all evil and vouchfafe all good.

(i) Heb. 7-25.

(k) Heb.2-17, 18--4-15, 16.

XXXIV.

XXXIV.

By fin, though I be quite undone,
And there's no help below the moon:

(1) Mat. 1.12. Yet Jesus Christ he (1) can me save,
Who rose triumphing from the grave.

XXXV.

(m) 16a. 1. 6. Though I be full of putrid (m) fores,
(n) Gen. 6. 5.
Rom. 5. 14.

My finful (n) nature good abhors;
18.
(o) Mat. 9.

Yet Christ is that physician (o) fure:
His Panacea will me cure.

XXXVI.

(*) Eph. 2. 1. I'm dead in fin, (*p) I cannot move,

Nor speak or think of things above:

But he'll come in with quickning grace;

And will afford my soul solace.

XXXVII.

(9) Eph. 2. 3. Though wrath (q) and curse I do deserve,

For many ways that I did swerve;

(r) Gal. 3.13. Yet Christ the (r) curse did bear for me;

(s) Col. 2.14. And nail'd my sins (f) unto a tree.

XXXVIII.

Though I deserve infernal pains;
Nothing in me but sin remains:

(1) Rom. 8. 1. His painful death shall me (s) relieve;

(1) Mat. 20.28. He did for me a (t) ransom give.

XXXIX.

(u) Dan. 9. 8. Though I deserve eternal (u) shame,
For gross profaning of his name:
(v) Isa. 61. 7. His ignominy (v) and disgrace,
Keeps me from a confounded face.

XL.

- Like stars my fins (w) in number be, Or like the drops of ocean-sea; Yet do his mercies far (x) transcend In number, for they have no end.
- (w) Pf.40.13
- (x) Pfal. 103. 8, 11, 17.

XLI.

- Even crimfon-red (y) by fin am I; My fins are of a double dye:
- (y) Ifa. 1. 18.

(z) Ifa. 1. 18. 1 Joh. 1. 7.

Bur Christ will make (z) me white as snow: Me to exalt, he came below.

XLII.

For us poor sinners, for our sakes
Three offices he undertakes?
Then joyfully I'll say and sing,
He is my Prophet, Priest and King.

A transition to CHRIST'S offices.

THE

THE

HOLY TRIPLICITY;

OR.

A Description of CHRIST's THREE OF-FICES, with the devout foul's triumphingfong, upon the consideration of CHRIST's all-sufficiency and expectation of perfect redemption by him.

SECTION I.

I'M not an Astrologue to gaze on the skies, To talk much of Trigons (a) and Triplicities; Jogues talk of Nor with great (b) Pythagore with some superthe fiery, airy, fittion. earthy and watry Trigons. (b) Pythagoras Ascribing much virtue to numbers condition: ascribed much virtue to fome numbers.

Yet clearly I fee, Without any lye,

A mystery wrapped * in seven, and in three.

Three Persons there are in Essence divine: Of angelic orders, thrice three, that is, nine: Twice three the Creation-days did compleat, GOD then did all finish he found to be meet. Four

^{*} Some things natural run by fevens, as feven planets, feven metals, &c. Some things political; as the feven principal nations who have had the greatest sway of government in the world, as Chaldeans, Persians, Grecians, Romans, Saracens, Goths, Turks, &c. Seven mountains whereupon Rome was built. Seven Governments in Rome, &c. Some things ecclefiaftic of theological, as the feven day a Sabbath, the feventh year fabbatical; feven Sabbatisms make a Jubilee. Seven bullocks oft in sacrifices; seven angels; feven seals, seven trumpets, seven vials in the Revelation, &c.

(c) Our igno-

cal office : our diffance and the prieftly :

and our impo-

scue ourselves by the kingly office.

alienation from God by fupplied by

Four threes are the twelve Tribes in Israel: So were the Apostles in truth that excell.

So CHRIST our Redeemer by offices three He purchas'd falvation for me and for thee. He's king, and a priest, a prophet divine: So brings he the Elect in Glory to shine,

His own he rescues, His foes he subdues, Though Furies Infernal their forces combine.

IV.

Our woful (c) defects they call for the three: We're blind and we know not how faved to be. sance to be Estranged from God, and children of wrath; the propheti-Unable to purchase a freedom from death.

> By prophet we fee; By priest we draw nigh:

:

::

,

t.

ur

&cc. at-

20-

me c of

ven els King JESUS gives strength, to God we may fly. tency to re

All these our defects, they call for supply, Which Jesus my Lord vouchfafes unto me. I'm blind, and I cannot the way well descry; But Christ is the prophet to teach me the way.

His spirit and word, Shall help me afford, from darkness to light, I'm led by my LORD.

VI.

E

My fins make a distance between me and GoD: or in his right path I have not abode.

His

His stroke is still ready to kill and destroy. To damp all my comforts, my peace and myjoy.

But CHRIST will with ease, The Father appeale.

As priest, he'll get pardon, and comfort will raife.

(d) CHRIST As man (d) he's the Sacrifice, debt for to pay; and facrifice. For all our trespasses on him we do lay. He's altar to fanctify the facrifice; As God to inrich it, and give it a price. As both God and man He's Priest, for he can Plead, offer and pray, and so favour win.

His kingdom he enters with scepter and sword; His Elect he conquers by spirit and word; By his holy laws he governs them all: His power protects them, whate'er can befal. Their foes, he shall fright, With terror and might, And crowns all his faints with glory most bright.

IX.

of faving finthree offices, 4:12. J. explaining. 2. purchasing. 3. applying.

(e) The order The order (e) of faving, the offices clears; ners requires For first he explains it, and then he acquires! And after applies what purchase he wan; So comes there much comfort to comfortless

> As prophet, declares: As Priest, full of cares; As King, he applies it, and keepeth from tears.

SECTION II.

1.

y;

d;

fal.

ht

es!

les

ars.

C.

The Soul's Triumphing-Song over all enemies, upon the consideration of CHRIST's all-fusficiency, and the expectation of that perfect redemption and glory purchased by him.

I.

I Will then inferior comforts for fake,

My choice above all things great Jefus I'll tion.

make,

Though Satan should fret, and fortune should frown,

I do not much value, when CHRIST is my own. In fickness and health, In want and in wealth,

I will feek my Jesus: till he give a Crown.

II.

And though all the world against me conspire, And though all the elements, water and fire, The earth and the air, and what ever more, Though men should massacre and lions should

Though (f) universe round [roar, (f) Pfal. 46,

Turn upside that's down,

Yet Jesus can conquer and give me a crown.

III.

His love is transcendent, his power is great; Admitting no crossing, affliction or lett; He's faithful in promise, and alters no words; What wisdom contriveth, his power affords:

On these I rely, Until that I dy:

And then sing his praises to eternity.

Nothing hall terrify.

2

IV.

IV.

(g) That is the Davil, Rev. 12.2, 3, 4. 8ec.

Pale death with his terrors me cannot affright, Nor yet the (g) red dragon with power and might:

Sin is their advantage, and guilt is their sting; But that is removed by Jesus our King.

Then conquering I, Hosanna I'll cry

And found out all praises to Jesus on high.

22, Heb. i. ult.

When death me dissolveth, glad tidings I hear, (b) Luke 16. Tho' friends they forfake me, the (b) angels draw near > Transporting my foul to mansions above: Then all things below me but vanities prove.

My Joy and my rest, Then find I at last:

For CHRIST I enjoy then of all things the best.

Comforts at Judgment.

And when the great day of judgment appears, Which brings to the guilty and godless their fears.

I'll be at his right hand with gladness of heart, (i) Mat. 25. (i) When finners receive an eternal depart. 41, 42.

He'll fay unto me,

I chosen have thee, Shalt be. (4) Mat. 25.14. And now with (k) my servants thou blessed

The gloripulaels of beaven. (1) Pial. 147. The stars do bespangle the heaven as gems Which God doth (1) number and call by their names,

This is but a pavement to that paradife, Where Christ, he resideth, that pearl of price.

Be

Be humble therefore. Admire and adore,

Let all thy aspiring be after this glore.

With Abrah'm and Isaac, I'll set me then down, The company of heaven. My crofs is exchang'd with a glorious crown. No hunger, (m) no thirst, no sickness appears; (m) Rev. 7.16. For Christ (n) from my eyes hath wiped all somevil.

With angels I dwell, tears, (*) Rev.21.4.

In light that excell:

(0) But Christ I enjoy, and he's all in all. (0) Pfal. 1.23.

My joy is fo full, I feek not for more; Enjoyment of all good. Of riches and honours I have so great store: Nor can I be robbed, (p) no change do I fear. (p) Mat. 16. My riches they rust not, nor garments do wear: 19, 20.

> For ever and av. They do not decay;

Bur last to eternity, O happy day!

t.

S, ir

t,

e.

ed

by

e. Be

My exercise is to adore (q) and to sing, Exercise in beaven. Sweet fongs of high praises to Jesus my king. (9) Rev. 15. The more I do praise, more reason I find: For this finite vessel cannot comprehend,

The glory that's there, That's free of all fear, near.

Come quickly, (r) Lord Jesu, and cause me draw (r) Rev. 22.

Then on my Redeemer I'll sweetly rely, With comfort reposing until that I dy: Disclaiming, denying the world and all, I'll give no repulses, when he gives a call.

And for every thing, I'll joyfully fing,

An high hallelujah to Jesus my King.

THE

BLESSED BETHLEHEMITE,

THE

FOUNTAIN OF LIFE;

O R,

CHRIST'S EXCELLENCY:

Containing a farther description of the blessed Messiah, the LORD JESUS CHRIST, in his Types, Titles, Attributes, &c. Set down after the order of the Alphabet, with their Scriptures on the Margent, together with the explication of dissipulties, out of the soundest, and most learned Interpreters.

I.

(a) Great joy in heaven and earth at the birth of our SAVIOUR.
Mat. 2. 1, 2.
(b) 1 Pet. 14
18, 19.
(c) Luke 2.
13, 14.

TIS not for nought, that wife men fought

(a) To worship Christ new born:

Till by his blood (b) he had us bought,

We wretches were forlorn.

(c) The Heav'ns did ring, the angels fing,
And shout for joy to see,
That filly man, undone by fin,
Is fred of misery.

II.

(d) Mat. 2. 6. (d) That bleffed Babe in Bethlehem born,
(e) 1 Cor. 15. (e) Is all in all to me;
As in this holy alphabet

Most plainly you may see.

Then

Then I'll begin to banish sin,
Contemning worldly toys:
With wings I'll sly and soar on high,
Seeking for heav'nly joys.

A Christian pious resolution upon the thoughts of CHRIST.

III.

I'll watch and pray, I'll mourn alway, For my transgressions great.
With faith, hope, charity will I
Both read and meditate.

The first theme then that I will chuse For my instruction;

Christ's names and stiles I will peruse, And meditate upon.

٢,

1

?1

nt

en

SECTION II. A

I.

He's second * Adam who repairs
What Adam did destroy.

(f) He's Advocate, to plead for me
That sin may not annoy.

Christ's Alpha and Omega + blest:
Beginning and the end.

(g) That golden Altar whereupon. Our prayers may ascend. (f) 1 John 2.

(g) Our prayers, praifes and all Chriflian duties must be offered up in his name; for in and thro' him, for his merits, righteousness, fions they must be accepted, Rev. 8. 3. Eph.1. 6. 1 Pet. 2,5.

* The first Adam being author of natural generation, derived into the his merits, world, fin, wrath and condemnation. Christ the second Adam, being righteousness the author of a spiritual generation, by grace and free adoption, was the fountain of life, grace, mercy and eternal salvation. 1 Cor. 15, 45. Rom. 5. 18, fions they must be accommoded to the second Adam and intercessions of life, grace, mercy and eternal salvation. 1 Cor. 15, 45. Rom. 5. 18, fions they must be accommoded as a second accommodation of life, grace, mercy and eternal salvation.

† This is an allusion to the Greek Alphabet, whereof Alpha is the first letter and Omega the last: So Christ as God, is the beginning of all things, effentially and originally, being before all things. (2.) Effectively, as Creator of all things, Heb. 1.2. John 1.3. So he is the end of all, first, terminatively, as the end and scope of all; all things being for his glory. 2. Continuatively, for duration; for after the destruction of some things, and alteration of all, though all things should be annihilated, yet he should continue still the same, unchangeable God for ever. Rom. 9. 5. James 1. 17.

III.

* Amen, the truth of promises. The (h) Ancient of days. + The Angel of the covenant. † Anointed, us to raise. Of our profession he's the great

(i) Apostle, above all. (i) Heb. 3. 1.

(k) Cant. 2.3. (k) Delicious Apple- tree that yields Affording The fruit most cordial. shelter, refreshment and the fweet fruits of pardon, grace, and confolation to his elect.

peace, mercy, An * Ark wherein the richest store Of treasures may be found, Ark for my foul, † that it by fin And wrath may not be drown'd.

(I)Rom, 5.11. Atonement (1) is to make my peace, And expiate my fin:

(m) Heb. 12,2. Author (m) and finisher of faith. That favour I may win.

SEC-

* Amen is an Hebrew word from Aman, which in the conjugation Hiphil, fignifies to believe. It imports then, fidelity and fledfastness in Christ, for the fulfilling of his promifes. Rev. 3, 14. 2 Cor. 1. 20.

† The Revealer, Mediator, and foundation of the Covenant of Grace.

Isa. 63. 9. Heb. 8. 6 .-- 9. 15 .-- 12. 24.

I Furnished with all qualifications suitable to a Redeemer. Pfal. 45. 7.

Acts 4. 27.

* The Ark of the Covenant was a type of Chrift, Heb. 9. 4. For 1. As in that ark was keeped precious monuments, fuch as, the Pot of Manna, the Tables of the Law, &c. fo in Christ is found all fulness of incomparable excellencies, Col. 2. 9. And as they covered the Tables of the Law, fo doth Christ by his Merits, Righteousnels and Intercessions keep up the Law from bringing a Curfe and wrath upon us, Gal. 3. 13.

As the Ark of Noah preserved a Remnant, when the most part perished; fo doth Chrift preserve the Elect from the deluge of Wrath.

SECTION III. B.

Hat bessed Babe in Bethlehem born For me his blood did spend.

Beloved (a) of the Father, hence Love doth to man descend.

The Bishop of our (b) souls, to watch The filly straying sheep:

In Gospel's net our souls to catch; And in his ways to keep.

The bravest (c) Branch on Jesse's stem, That ever on it grew.

The Brazen * Serpent, which me cur'd When fin and wrath me flew.

That Bread (d) of life which whoso eats Shall not with hunger pine.

The Bride-groom (e) of my foul, whose love Is better than the wine.

III.

The Brightness of the (f) Father's glore \dagger , In whom the Deity shines.

He's ocean (g) full of faving grace More cordial then the wines.

Hi-

rift, ace.

. 7.

As

na, able loth

rom

ied }

Then I'll begin to banish sin, &c.

(a) Eph. 1.6.

(b) 1 Pet. 2.25.

(e) Ifa. 4. t. Jer. 23. 5,

(e) Joh. 6.35. 48. 51.

(f) Joh 3.29.

(g) Heb 1.13. Col. 1. 15.

(b) Col 1. 190 -- 2. 9.

This is verified of CHRIST, first, in his divine nature, having the fame ssence with the Father, secondly, in his human nature, by his heavenly offrine and flupendious miracles.

SEC-

^{*} As the people of Ifrael were cured of the flings and bitings of fiery Serents in the wilderness by looking on the Brazen Serpent, Num. 21. 9. So te Believers cured from the flings and wounds of fin and Satan by looking with the eye of faith on Jesus lifted up upon the pole of the Cross. John

SECTION IV. C.

(d) Heb.2.10. The Captain (a) of salvation stout;
(b) Cant. 5.10. Of thousands ten (b) the Chief.
(c) Acto 4.27. A (c) Child, yet champion foes to rout,

And bring my foul relief.

(d)Cant.1.14. A Cluster is of sweet (d) Camphire Full of soul saving grace.

(e) 1sa. 544 4. A kind (e) Commander me to cheer, And bring my soul to peace.

II.

(f) Luk. 2.25. Ifrael's (f) Consolation.

The (g) Corner-stone is he, (g) 1 Pet. 2. 6. Both Jew and Gentile for to joyn (b) Ifa. 49.8. In one church curiously. Christ is the Mediator, the He's given us for a (h) Covenant, Which God and man hath ty'd. ject and comfort in the A (i) Covert from God's stormy wrath covenant of My (k) Counseller and Guide. grace. (i) Ifa. 32. 2. (k) Ma. 9. 6.

SECTION V. D.

I.

(a) Jet. 39.9. (a) DAVID according to God's heart,

Goliath for to flay;

To kill ten thousands of my foes

And drive them all away.

(b) 2 Pet. 1.9. (b) Day-star to bring the Morning light:

(c) Ifa.59.20. (c) Deliverer him I'll call.

Rom. 11. 26.
(d) Ifa. 42. 1. The holy Father's chief (d) Delight.

(e) Hag. 2. 7. (e) Desire of nations all.

Upon the Estate of Grace.

A Divine (f) Doctor who hath wit Thrice infinite in store.

A (g) Door whereby we accels get Into celestial glore.

Then I'll begin, &c.

43

(f) Luk 2.26,

(g) Joh. 10.

SECTION VI. E.

I.

THE (h) Eagle on his foaring wings
His brood doth bear away
Far from all danger, so my soul

By Christ is kept alway.

My (i) Elder-brother for my good The (k) Elect one of might.

An (1) Ensign lifted up on high Mine enemies to fright.

II.

(m) End of the law, for 'tis a guide And school-master to show,

That my foul fins without his aid Will quite me overthrow.

The (n) end also of ceremonies, For shadows they do fly,

When Christ the substance on the cross 'Tis finished did cry.

III.

(0) As Enoch most religious
Did ever walk with God,

And after caught to heav'n, where he Eternal hath abode.

(b) Ex. 19.4.

(i) Heb. 2. 11,

(k) Ifa. 42. 1, (l) Ifa. 11.11. 12. All the elect flock to him, and delight to fight against fpiritual enemies under his conduct. (m) Rom. 10.

(n) Joh. 1. 17. Gal. 4. 3, 4n

(o) Gen. 5.24.

F 2

(p) He's rt,

For Essence is but one:
In blessed Three, yet person'ly
He is the Father's son.

SECTION VII. F.G. H.

I.

(g) Pfal. 45.2. He's (g) fairer than the fons of men:
A faithful Steward he.
Faithful in witness and in word
(r) Rev. 1.11. He's (r) first and last I see.

(J) Mat. 3.11, With fire of grace (f) he'll me Baptize,
To purge away my tin,
And if need be affliction's fire
Shall mortify my sin.

II.

(s) 1 Cor. 15. (s) First fruits of resurrection; 20, 23. He's the foundation fure. Firft in order of time, first (t) The Fountain whence the living streams for quality, being chief, Do flow, my foul to cure. as also being and pledge of (u) As Forerunner, he's gone before, our refurrec-Those mansions to prepare, tion. (1)Zech. 13.1. Where bleffed faints in perfect glore (u) Heb.6.20. And elect angels are.

III.

(v) Joh.4.10. (v) The goodly Gift of God bestow'd
On Adam's wretched race.
(w) Luke 2. (w) The Glory of his Ifrael:
And true God for solace:
(v) Mat. 2.5. He's my great (x) Governor and Guide
My foes he will deface.

Head

Upon	the	E	Rate	of	Grace.
- ban		-		1

45

(y) Head of the church, he's (z) Heir of a He is my (a) Hiding place.	11, (y) Eph. r.
He is my (a) Hiding place.	(z) Heb. 1. 2. (a) Ifa. 32. 2.

IV.

(b) The High and Lofty One so great	(b) Ifa. 57.15.
(c) High- priest for sacrifice;	(c) Heb.4.15.
(d) The Holy One of Israel,	(d) Ifa. 1. 4.
And Ilrael's Hope he is

And Ifrael's Hope he is.

(e) The Horn of my falvation strong, (e) Luk. 1.64.

To push my foes away.

(f) A loving Husband to my foul, (f) Luk.21.2.

My grief for to allay.

SECTION VIII. I.K.L.M.

T.

HE's (g) Jesus or That Joshua great, (g) Mat. 1.45.
To keep my foul from hell.
The land of promife will me give Gracious IMMANUEL.

(h) IMMANUEL, that is, God with us, (b) i. e. God With us, (b) i. e. God With us.

Oh wonder and admire,

That God and man in person and

That God and man in person one Concur and come so near!

II.

As (i) Jonah cast into the depth,

Yet he's restor'd again

After three days. A (k) Joseph sold

By brethren with disdain,

Betrayed and sold for little Gold,

Yet for his Brethrens good:

(i)Mat.12.4c.

(i)Mat.12.4c.

(k)Gen.37.28

comp. with

Mat. 26. 150

For they had famish'd had he not Provided them with food.

Tead

An

III.

(1) Gen. 22.9. An (1) Isaac on the Altar laid, with Isa. 53. And that most willingly His soul for sin an offering made; Hence my felicity.

(m) Luk.2.10. (m) My Joy, my (n) Intercessor dear:
(n) Heb.7.25.
(o) Pet.4.5.

A (o) Judge that will not sway.

The King of Kings, for opening hearts,
(p) Of David hath the key.

(p) Ifa. 22. 4. Rev. 3. 7.

IV.

(q)Gen.28.12 A (q) Ladder leading up to heav'n, The meekest (r) Lamb of God. a type of Christ and his A (/) Law-giver to frame and fend angels. (r) Joh. 1.29. His statutes all abroad. -- 3.6. Rev. 21. 22. A (s) Leader, (t) Life and glorious (u) Light. (f) James 4. A (v) Lilly white and fair. (4) Is. 58.4. Of Judah's tribe the (w) Lyon stout.
(4) John 14.6. Of Judah's tribe the (w) Lyon stout.
(4) John 8.12.

A living (x) stone * and rare. A living (x) stone * and rare. (v) Cant. 2.1. (20) Rev. 5.5. V. (x) 1 Pet.2.4.

(y)Mat.7.21. A (y) LORD of LORDS: for other lords
Have small supremacy.

Therefore I'll follow thee.

(4) Heb.2.17. The (a) Man, restoring man to life.
(b) Joh. 6.5.8. Sweet (b) Manna for my food.

(e) Joh. 13.13. My (c) Master to instruct my soul, And teach me what is good.

VI.

CHRIST is a spiritual Stone, sively in the spiritual building of the Church, solid, durable, bruising enemies, and the chief Corner-stone to join Jew and Gentile into one church, as also a most precious Stone full of transcendent virtues.

Upon the Estate of Grace.

VI.

보는 사람들은 사람들이 되었다. 그는 사람들은 사람들이 살아왔다면 하는 사람들이 되었다면 하는 것이 없는데 살아보다면 하는데 없다면 살아보다면 하는데 없다면 살아보다면 하는데 없다면 살아보다면 하는데 살아보다면 하는데 없다면
The (d) Mediator for my fin The Father to appeale.	(d) 1Tim.2.8.
(e) Melchizedeck the righteous King, To give me rest and ease.	(e)Pfal, 180.4. Heb. 5. 6.
(f) Messiah the Anointed one, To be Priest, Prophet, King.	(f)Dan.g.25. 26.
The (g) Messenger of Covenant, Glad tidings for to bring.	(g) Mal. 3. 1.
VII.
The (b) Mercy-seat: he mercy gives, When merit I have none.	(b) Heb. 9. 5.
(i) Most Mighty, and he's (k) Minister Of Circumcision.	(i) Pfal. 45.3. (i) Rom. 15.8. Preaching

SECTION IX. N.O.P.Q.R.

Though we were dead, he'll make us live For this his blood was spent.

(1) Of Myrrh a bundle to revive:

A Cordial for the faint.

f the o join tran-

I.

	A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH
A (a) New and living Way to bring To Canaan above.	(a)Heb.10.10.
To Canaan above.
A (b) Nazarite separate from sin,	(b) Mat. 2.23.
Most worthy of our love.
As (c) Noah did an Ark prepare	(c) Gen. 8. 1. and chap. 7.
A remnant for to fave,	and chap. 7.
When all the world was drown'd; fo Christ	,
Life to the world gave.

falvation unto the circumcifed Jews. (1) Cant. 1.13.

33.

II.

By wo and wrath, sin, shame and death Which make a fatal end, We all had perish'd, but his blood.

For ransom he did send.

Id) Rom. 11. An (d) Olive, with the sap of grace For ever fresh and green.

(e) Cant. 1.3. An (e) Ointment poured forth and full, Of odour and perfume.

III.

The Passover for me was slain;
The Paschal-Lamb for food:
Our hearts by faith bedew'd must be
And sprinkled with his blood,
That the destroying angel may
Pass by and do not kill.

(g) Mic. 5. 5. He is our (g) Peace, and (h) Pearl of price (h) Mat. 13. With riches us to fill.

IV.

(i) Mal. 4. 2. A choice (i) Physician for my soul: Mat.9.12,13. (k) Ifa. 53. 2. A (k) Plant of great renown: A (1) polish'd shaft: The (m) Pow'r of God, (1) Ifa. 49. 3. To pierce the To pull mine enemies down. hearts of rebellious fin-(n) Priest +, offering, and the altar too: mers, either for conviction He is my (0) Prince of Peace, or conversion. (m) I Cor. 1. A (p) Propitiation good and true: 24. (n) Pf. 110.4. A (q) Prophet full of grace. (o) Ifa. 9. 9. (p)1 Joh.4.10. (9) Luke 13.

† Priest as Mediator God-man, the Sacrifice, in his human Nature, and the Alter in his divine Nature, sanctifying the Sacrifice, giving it worth merit, and value.

2. R.

V.

A (r) Quickning Spirit to revive A foul in fin that's dead.

(f) Rabbi to teach, a (s) Ransom for A soul that's captive led.

Ev'n my Redeemer with his blood. He's (t) Righteousness to save.

A(u) Resurrection from the dead, Triumphing o'er the grave.

VI.

Of (v) ages Rock impregnable, The (w) Root of Jesse strong. The (x) Rose of Sharon beautiful: (y) He's Ruler us among.

SECTION X. S.

I.

A (a) Sacrifice for all our fins.
A (b) Sanctuary fecure.
The true (c) Samaritan, my foul
That's wounded for to cure.

d) A Samson, thousands to destroy, Of Philistins prophane:

he gates of Gaza bare away, Death's gates for all his train.

II.

Ind in his Death, O wonderful!
The greatest victory le gets o'er sin, grave, Satan, hell,
And routs them totally.

re, and worth

(†) 1 Cor. 15. 45.

(f) Joh. 8:49. (s) Ifa. 54. 20. 1 Cor. 1. 30.

(t)1Cor. 1.30. (u) Joh. 11.25. Being the author and cause both of the spiritual refurrection from fin, and the corporal refurrection at the great day. (v) Mat. 16.18 (w) Ifa. 11 10. Rev. 5. 5. (x) Cant. 2.1. (y) Mic. 5. 2.

(a) Heb.g.so.

(b) Ifa. 8. 14.

(c) Luke 10.

(d) Judg. 15. and chap. 16.

A

(e) John4.41. A (e) Saviour my poor foul to fave.

(f) Levit.16. The (f) Scape-Goat for to bear

(g) Heb.6.8. My woful fins, his (g) Scepter brave

Doth free my foul of fear.

III.

(b) Phil. 2.7. A (h) Servant for our fouls he was:
(i) Gen.49 10.

(i) Shiloh fent for our good:
The Son eternal, heir of all:
A Shepherd us to feed.

(k) Isa.49.22. (k) A Standard to the world display'd:

(1) Num. 24. The (1) Star of Jacob bright:

(m) 1 Pet. 2.4. A (m) Stone most precious, though refus'd:

(n) Mal. 4. 2. A (n) Sun that's full of light.

IV.

A Sun of Righteousness, I say,
To quicken and direct:
From him's my comfort, light and life,
He's surety for my debt.

SECTION XI. T. W.

T.

(a) Mat. 3.17. A (a) Tabernacle, where our fuits
John 14. 14.

Have answers most Divine.

(b) John 2.19. (b) A Temple, where the Deity dwells:

(c) John 14.6. He's (c) truth to clear my mind.

(d) Rev. 2. 7. The Tree (d) of life, far from all strife,

With meat and medicine,

Shall me supply and satisfy,

When paradife I win.

II.

His foul refreshing cordial grace, Like (e) waters flow amain:

The Way (f) conducting to that place Where Souls are free of pain.

(g) Vine-Tree to cherish me and give The sap of saving Grace,

The Father's (h) Wisdom, (I believe)
A (i) Witness for release.

III.

The (k) Word of God effential;
The subject, scope and end
Of Written-word, and (l) Wonderful Salvation to send.

ıs'd:

SECTION XII. Y. Z.

I.

To Day and (a) Yesterday the same, Ev'n to Eternity, His Wisdom, power and goodness great,

Are forthcoming to me.

So (b) Zealous for the house of God,
That nothing could restrain
Him from the shedding of his blood,
To ransom them again.

(e) Ifa. 55. 1.

(f) Joh. 14.6.

(g) John 15.

(b) Cor. 1.24, (i) See on the word faithful.

(k) John 1.16,

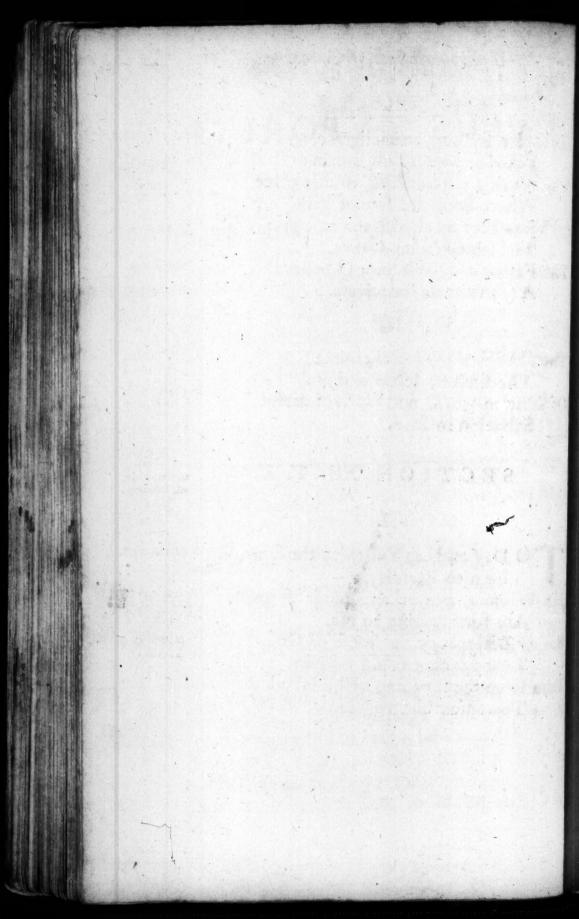

(1) Ifa. 9. 6.
Wonderful in respect of his natures united into one perfon, in respect of his offices, words, works, and sufferings.

(a) Heb. 13.8.

(b) Pfal.69.9. John 2. 17.

TYPUS

G 2

TYPUS TYPORUM.

OR, A

TABLE

OF

The several Types, Titles and Attributes of JESUS CHRIST according to the nature of the things themselves, as in the former treatise, they were set down after the order of the Alphabet.

Advertisement anent the scope, use and form of this Tuble, &c.

THE use of this Table explained in the former song, is manifold, as sirst, for Information, to let us see these matchless and incomparable excellencies that are in Jesus Christ our Lord. 2. For consolation: The heart of a sincere Christian cannot but be silled with ravishing and transporting joys when it beholds such excellencies in Christ; and then begins to find a title and interest in them.

3. For spiritual Devotion, every Type and Title almost affording excellent compellations to Christ, ground of considence to draw near, matter of prayer and praise; as for example, one in praying may say, Lord, thou who art the King of Kings, subdue my rebellious Spirit to thyself, by the Scepter of thy word and Spirit, &c. that I may be of the number of thy willing people: preserve me powerfully from my spiritual enemies, &c. Thou who art that vigilant Shepherd of Souls, protest me from the roaring Lyon Satan who is ready to tear me, and lead me to the living Waters, &c. 4. For matter of Meditation: every Type or Title, &c. affording heavenly matter for the exercise of our spiritual thoughts.

II. As to the exactness of it, it were easy to make it more scholastick and reduce it all to Dichotomies, but I thought this sufficient for the most of ordinary Christians.

Here follows the Table.

TYPUSTYPORUM.

OR A TABLE OF THE

NAMES, TYPES AND TITLES OF CHRIST,

According to the Nature of the Things themselves, as the last was after the Order of the Alphabet, &c.

Attributes, Benefits, &c. represented by

I.

1. Typical: as Adam, Enoch, Jonah, Joseph, Isaac, Melchizedec, Nazarite, Joshua, Samson, David, &c. 1. More general: as Anointed, Chief, Elect, First and Last, Governor, Guide, High and Lofty One, Holy One of Ifrael, Hope of Israel, Lovely, Man, Ruler, Shiloh, Wonderful, &c. Beloved, Fairer than the Sons of Men, &c. 2. Emblema-[1. Conjugal; as, Husband and Bridegroom of the Church. tical, and that 1. Oeco-{ 2. Paternal; as, Everlasting Father, Child, Babe, Son, Heir of All, &c. Perfons. eitherCelesti- 2. More nomical. 3. Herile; as Master, Servant, Faithful in God's house, as Steward, or Dispensator, Shepherd, &c. al, as Angel, { special, 1. Paci- [1. For Restauration; as Physician, Deliverer, Redeemer, Samaritan, Saviour, &c. fical, or 2. For Protection, Provision, Direction and Promotion, &c. As King of Kings, Arch-angel, and that 2. Civil Lord of Lords, Prince of Peace, Judge, Law-giver, Counfellor, Advocate, Inor fublunary; accordor Poli- { Peace- } and these. ing to tical. able. | tercessor, Mediator, Surety, Fore-runner, &c. 2. Martial; as Captain, Lord of Hosts, Commander, &c. most Mighty, Leader, &c. Relati-3. Ecclesiastical; as Apostle, Doctor, Bishop of Souls, Author and Finisher of our Faith, First Fruits ons. from the Dead, Glory of Israel, Head of the Church, High Priest, Messiah, Minister of Circumcision, Priest, Prophet, Rabbi, Messenger of the Covenant, &c. 1. Spiritual; as Consolation, Gift, Truth, Joy, To Day and Yesterday the same, Zealous, &c. 1. Celestial; as Sun, Light, Morning-star, &c. 1. Ani- I. Sensitive; as Lyon, Lamb, Eagle, &c.
2. Insensitive and Vegetable; as Vine-tree, Apple-tree, Branch, Camphire, Myrrh, Rose of 2. Natural. 2. Submate. celesti-Sharon, Plant, Root of Jesse, Tree of Life, &c. 2. Inanimate; as Horn of Salvation, Stone precious, Corner-stone, Pearl, Rock, Fire, Waters, Gold, Things. Milk, Wine, Oyl, Fountain, &c. 3. Ecclesiastical; as Altar, Ark, Atonement, Tabernacle, Temple, End of the Law, Offering, Mercy-seat, Passover, Propitiation, Righteousness, Resurrection, Sacrifice, Scape-goat, &c. 4. Political; and that \(\)1. Peaceable; as Covenant, Way, Peace, Scepter, Eye-salve, &c. 2. Martial; as Enfign, Ransom, Standard, &c. 5. Oeconomical; as Corner-stone, Door, Foundation, Key of David, Ladder, &c. 1. Typical; as Brazen Serpent, Tabernacle, Temple, &c. 2. Em- st. Peaceable; for Health, Ease, Honour, &c. Bread, Eye-salve, Robes of Righteousness, Ointment, 6. Artificial. blema- { Scepter, he makes his People as Pillars, &c. tical. 2. Martial; as Polished Shaft, &c.

THE

SAINT'S DELIGHT,

OR, THE

PEARL OF PRICE:

WHEREIN

CHRIST's transcendent excellencies are comparatively demonstrated (having treated of them absolutely before) so that all things else compared with him are found to prove but empty vanities, but dung and loss, Phil. 3. 8. and CHRIST is found to be superlatively excellent, and to be the complete, and adequate object of the love, desire and delight of rational creatures.

PART I.

I.

You (a) Seraphims and higher pow'rs, Thrones, cherubins and angels all; You minister in several tow'rs, Though you be sp'rits celestial,

What are you? what are you?

(b) Ye ferve LORD JESUS at a call.

CHRIST compared with angels. (a) Ifa. 6. 2. Col. 1. 16. Eph. 1. 21.

(b) Dan.7.10.

II.

Great luminaries, sun and moon,
You radiant stars in heavenly spheres;
You serve both day, at night and noon,

And give influx as need requires:

Celeffial things visible.

What

 $^{\odot}$

What are you? &c.

(c) Mal. 4. 2. (c) When fun of Righteousness appears.

III.

Metals, mi-You gold and filver, diamonds, nerals and pre-cious stones. Rich minerals for man's device,

Ye rubies, faphires, precious stones,

Which please mens fancies that are nice; What are ye? &c.

(d) Mat. 13. Ye're nothing to that pearl (d) of price.

IV

You fruitful vine, and apple rife,

Trees. You myrtle, cherry, cypress all And laurel that decides the strife;

What are ye? &c.

(e) Rev. 2.7. (e) What are you to the tree of life?

V.

You violet and dainty rose,
Solsequium, and the lilly fair,
You fragrant flowers sit for the nose,

Delighting eyes with colours rare:

What are ye? &c.

(f) Cant. 2.1. (f) Our Sharon's rose surpasseth far.

VI.

Animals You ramping lyon, elephant,

Ye Horses with your stately pace,

Ye harts that for the waters pant, Ye goats and gray-hounds are but base,

Ye're naught to Christ that valiant,

18) Rev. 5.5. That lyon of (g) Jehuda's race.

VII.

Y

T

W

Ye

(k)

W

Ye

Ye

Wh

Yel

m)

Wha

Ye g

You man that is God's master-piece,

Among all creatures hast no peer:

Thou art the rarest artifice,

(b) And to Jehovah comes most near,

What are you? &c.

(i) When fecond Adam doth appear.

Man in ge-

(b) Gen. 1. 26.

(i) 1 Cor. 15.

All ranks of men, and firft

(k) Pfal. 82.6.

kings.

VIII.

Ye mighty monarchs that do fway

The scepter, ye're but flesh and bone:

(k) Ye're Gods, but I'll be bold to fay,

Like men you shall dy every one.

What are ye? &c.

When heav'ns King fits on the throne.

IX.

Ye potentates and noble peers,

Ye stoop when princes do but frown:

Ye have great pomp for some few years,

(1) But suddenly ye are cast down.

What are ye? &c.

The faint he wears the noble crown.

Ye learned doctors with your books,

High contemplations you do teach;

m) Your doctrine flows like muddy brooks,

The shell of knowledge you but reach:

What are ye? &c. preach.

(n) When Christ from heav'n doth wisdom (n) 1 Cor. 1.

30. Joh. 14.6. 1 Cor. 1. 24.

XI.

Ye grave divines, ye stars of light,

Ye watchmen, and the stewards true,

Am-

Noblemen. courtiers, &c.

(1) Pfal. 41.

Learned men of all forts.

(m) 7 Cor. 15

Divines.

H

Ambassadors to God of light,

(0) Jer. 17. (0) The subtile heart ye cannot know: What are ye? &c.

(p) Joh. 1.9. (p) Wh

Luke 2. 40.

(t) Am. 3. 6. 1 Cor. 1. 19.

1fa. 29. 14.

Soldiers.

(p) When Christ comes down with glorious show.

XII.

Physicians. Ye great physicans, who relieve
The body from tormenting pain,
Some sickness fore yourselves doth grieve,
And cannot life recall again:

What are ye? &c. [vain. (q) Pfal.49.9. (q) When death comes all your labour's

XIII.

N

(

V

H

De

W

Nor one poor foul with pleading draw,

From justice throne, or Pluto's gate:

What are ye? &c.

(f) Christ is the pleader, ye but prate.

XIV.

Mathematicians, Afrolosues, &c.
(s) If (1)
13, 14.

Mathemati(s) Ye that prognostick by the stars,
The change of nature and of state,
Can ye prevent tumultuous jarrs?
Or can ye alter your own fate?
What are ye? &c.

(t) When Christ inverts both day and date.

XV.

Ye men of war with fword and shield,
With mind heroick, strong and stout,
Like Alexander in the sield
To conquer ye do never doubt:
What

What are ye? &c.

(u) He's valiant, that doth Satan rout.

(n) Eph 6. 12, 13, &c. James 4 7. Rom. 16. 20.

Navigators.

XVI.

Ye navigators, that traverse

Remotest Indies east and west,

With wings of Icarus commerce,

And Eolus makes all your haste:

What are ye? &c.

Ye perish by a stormy (v) blast.

(w) Pfal.48.7.

XVII.

Merchants that compass sea and land,

The pirates you do oft bereave, (w) One foul from Pluto's cruel hand

Though you be rich you cannot fave?

What are ye? &c.

Let me have Christ no more I crave.

Merchants.

(w) From the power of Sa-tan.

PART II.

Holding forth the emptiness and vanity of all sublunary enjoyments, by general arguments taken from the common nature of all created comforts, with a transition to the next treatise.

I

HEalth, beauty, strength, ye are but flow'rs, Soon withered with a stormy blast, Decrepit age and sickness show'rs,

To dust makes you return in haste:

What are ye? &c.

(x) Christ is my choice, for he is best. (x) Phil. 3.8.

Temporal enjoyments.

1. Personal endowments external.

II.

2. Prosperity. You flattering fortune with your smile.

(y) Psal, 30.6.

(y) Whose favour filleth all my fails,

(x) Job 1.21.

(z) Your change will shortly me beguile,

I do not prize your prosp'rous gales:

What are you? &c.

(4) Mat. 28. (a) Christ is the friend that never fails.

III.

You glist'ring gold and silver bright,
Which mortal men do so desire;
You precious gems that shine with light,
You carbuncle, that's like the sire:
What are you? &c.
It is for Christ that I aspire.

IV.

The rustick fears your threatning rod;

In orb of state ye give a glance,

And idoliz'd (b) as if a God:

(c) Isa.40.15. I count you all (c) an atom small;

If Christ with me make his abode.

V.

S. Friends and fav'rites that are great,
and relations.

I will not on you much rely:

(d) Pial. 146. Ye love to day, (d) to morrow hate:

And where's your help when that you dy:

What are ye? &c.

[cry.
(e) Pfal. 25.70.
Heb. 12. 5.

(e) When friends forfake, he'll hear my

VI.

Delighting parents when you prate,

Some

5

Y

B

W

Y

W

Y

Yo

W

Ye

(l)

W

7. Wildom

(f) Ifa. 29.14. . 33. 18.

T Cor. 1. 20. Eccl. 1.17, 18,

(g) 1 Cor. 1. 30.

8. Senfual pleasures;

and knowledge.

Some fickness grieves, some death destroys. And some of you do prove ungrate: What are ye? &c.

Ye're good, but yet inferior joys.

VII.

Ye fublime notions and acute,

That reach both depth and starry fky;

Before the Judge ye're turned mute,

(f) If grace do you not fanctify:

What are ye? &c.

(g) Christ is that wisdom from on high.

VIII.

You fumptuous fare, delicious wine,

You Indian fruit that's bought so dear:

You flattering Venus fair and fine,

That doth the vicious wanton cheer:

What are you? &c.

(h) When Sun of Righteousness draws John 4. 14.

IX.

You purple robes and cloath of gold,

Whose mother is the brute and dust:

You're cast away, when you wax old:

Your borrowed beauty foon doth rust:

What are you? &c.

(i) The wedding garment is my trust.

11, 12.

Ye gilded trifles more or less,

(k) Can ye your comforts eternize?

(1) Can ye man's happiness increase,

When man ye do not equalize,

What are ye? &c.

(m) Let me have CHRIST, he will suffice. (1) Eccl. 2.15. XI. (m) Phil. 3.8.

(i) Mat. 22.

9. Apparel and ormsments.

Common arguments. 1. From their unconstancy, inutility and inequality to

XI.

T

T

W

Yo

Yo

W

But

(1)

Vha

ou'

ou

Vhat

XV

2. They are Then I'll conclude with Solomon, cares and vexations. Created comforts all I see,

Are empty trifles every one,

(n) Nothing but vexing vanity:

1, 2, 3. What are ye? &c.

When CHRIST appears in majesty.

XII.

3. Emptiness, No more than can a circle round being unsatisfactory. The sharp triangle satisfy;

(6) Eccl. 1. 5. No more my heart, (0) all that's here found But ever-blessed Trinitiy.

What are you? &c.

When Christ comes with his rich supply

XIII.

finite and temporal. My soul, it sues for more and more:

A spiritual object you must show:

And I must have some richer store.

What are ye? &c.

When Christ comes with his heav'nly glow

XIV.

Nothing abides in constant frame,

(p) Ev'n like to Proteus, or the air,

(p) Like the fea ebbing and flowing.

Them to the dew I may compare:

Eccl. 2. 4. to What are you? &c.

When Christ comes with his treasure fair

XV.

To morrow fick, to day in health,
To day I'm bound, to morrow free;
To morrow poor, to day in wealth:

To day I'm low, to morrow high.

What are you? &c.

When joys come with eternity?

XVI.

You crazy comforts are but mixt,

With as great croffes at your best; You're blazing stars, and are not fixt;

You're trifling toys that have no last.

What are you? &c.

(q) When Christ comes with eternal rest; (1) Heb. 4.9.

XVII.

But now the (r) Day-star doth appear, Above th' horizon it doth rise:

(1) The Sun of Righteousness draws near,

With light and life down from the skies;

Vhat are you? &c.

When this fair foaring eagle flies?

XVIII.

ou're broken cisterns less and more,

That living water cannot give:

ou cannot give me grace and glore,

That ever bleffed I may live:

That are you? &c.

But broken reeds you all do prove.

5. Imperfection and mixture.

to the next treatife. (r) 2Pet. 1.19. (f) Mal. 4.2.

Transition

HONEY-DROPS

OR,

CHRYSTAL-STREAMS.

CONTAINING

A bundle of precious promises, full of soulravishing comforts, purchased by CHRIST. and belonging to Believers in the estate of grace.

SECTION I.

The grand and comprehensive promises of God himself, of CHRIST, and to inherit all things, and the unchangeableness of God's goodness, with the foul's use of all.

F God's great goodness now I'll sing, I will his mercy praise, For to extoll Jehovah King A quiv'ring voice I'll raise.

(4) Jer. 24. 7. I'll be thy (a) God, thou fayst, O LORD, --- 32. 38. This promis'd is to me: This is a very comprehen-What highest heaven can afford Ave promife,

I will vouchsafe on thee. when all that is in God and . flows from

II.

God is forthcoming to his For this poor earth thou needst not care, people.

Thou shalt inherit (b) all: (b) Rev. 21.7.

(c) Rom. 8.17. With Christ my Son thou shalt be (c) heir, In glore celestial.

An

But

1

F

C

0

Is

F

A

Bu

An

Bu

Sha

His

0

O pause (d) my soul, and be amaz'd At this transcendent grace; And for thy vileness be abas'd, Be sure to make thy peace.

III.

Oh what am I but finful dust,
And shall I have such store
Of riches, that shall never rust
In that eternal glore?
Is't not enough, I'm not in hell.
Tormented in that fire?
For oft did I thy voice repell,
Provoking thee to ire.

IV.

And shall not only thou relieve
Me from th' infernal lake,
But also promisest to give
Good things for mercy's sake.
And shall I not have only crumbs
Which from thy table fall:
But more than all the richest sums
Of gold and silver all.

V

And shall it not suffice to give
What creatures can afford?
But thou wilt have me for to live,
Ev'n with thyself, O Lord!
Shall God then be my (e) portion?
His wisdom to direct?
His goodness for compassion,
His power to protect.

(d) The foul is transported with admiration of this incomparable mercy.

(r) Pfal. 119. 57. All God's attributes for the good of his people.

VI.

His holiness to fanctify? His all-fufficient store. Me to provide with rich supply? Blest be my God therefore.

Shall his high habitation, Even be my dwelling place?

(f) Rom. 8. And shall his (f) creatures every one 28. Hof. 2. Make way for my folace? 18, 19.

VII.

(E) Pfal. 34.7. Shall his brave (g) angels me furround, And guard me from all ill? O this great mercy hath no bound! Sing praises then I will.

The foul's refolution fideration of this incomprenepfible inercy;

God's mercy.

(b) Pfal. 103. O then, (h) my foul, let all thy strength And faculties each one, upon the con-Be confecrate to God at length For his falvation.

VIII.

Thy time and talent then bestow. His name to glorify? Who did to thee fuch mercy show, Praise him most cheerfully.

(1) Pfal. 103. But as this mercy's (i) great and free, 11 .--- 145. 8. So doth it still endure,

(8) Pfal. 136. Most firm and fure (k) t' eternity, The unchang-None shall their foul injure. ableness and perpetuity of

IX.

(1) Isa.49.15. A woman (1) may forgetful be Of Infants to her born;

(m) Ifa. 54.10.

(r) Ifa. 540

But though she would, yet will not God Me leave to be forlorn.

The (m) mountains may removed be: The day and night may change,

The hills be cast (n) into the Sea: (n) Psal. 46.2.

Though heaven and earth do range.

X.

Yet fure will he, most tenderly, His precious saints embrace.

In spight (0) of hell, they shall prevail, (0) Mat. 16.
And see his glorious face.

I'm grav'n (p) upon his palms, therefore (p) 1/2.49.10.

I'll not forgotten be;

Though I were (q) ev'n at death's dark vale, (q) Pfal.23.44. It shall not terrify.

XI.

His wrath (r) may for a moment last,

To chasten me for sin;

Yet everlasting kindness, I,

And favour hope to find. Then I'll begin to banish sin,

Contemning wordly toys.

With wings I'll fly and foar on high, Seeking for heav'nly joys.

I 2

SEC-

SECTION II.

Promises of privative mercies, anent afflictions or tribulations, either to preserve God's people from them, to support under them, to sanctify them, and deliver out of them.

I.

(a) Pfal. 89. With rods of (a) men I'll thee correct,
But yet my special love
I'll never fully from thee take,

But gracious will prove;

Yet altogether will not I

Permit thee for to want

(b) Prov. 30.9. A chast'ning (b) rod, lest thou deny Necessity of Thy God and covenant.

II.

Thou knowest, this is the way I took, With all my servants dear:

As in the facred scripture book, Thou mayest both read and hear.

Thou hear'st that Abel, Moses, Lot, David and Daniel,

Did meet with perfecutions hot, But now they with me dwell.

III.

No faint so pure, that wants all sin, And sin I always hate:

(c) 16a. 27. 9. Then I must purge him (c) from the tin.

And make him loath the bait.

One

I'

A

I'l

T

O

A

11

T

Af

Th

Aff

Upon the Estate of Grace.

69

One Son I (d) have, that never linn d,
Yet he must bear the cross:
How think'st thou then to be exeem'd

(d) CHRIST free of fin, but not of forrow.

That's full of finful drofs?

IV.

I'll either keep thee (e) from the pain, Or strengthen (f) thee to bear. Affliction shall not prove thy bane,

(e) Job 5. 19. Pfal. 91. 5. 6, 7. (f) 1 Cor. 10. 13.

The curse (g) thou need'st not fear.

(g) Rom. 8.1.

I'll fanctify to thee the rod,

A bleffing it (h) shall prove; That thou may'st learn to fear thy GoD, And never from him move.

(b)Pfal.94.12. Rom. 5. 4. 5.

One antidote (i) it is for fin A corrofive to cure: A purging (k) potion is therein, fruits of affliction to man himself. (i) Luke 15. 14. 16, 17. (k) Ifa. 27. 9.

The pleafant

To make thee clean and pure. I'll (1) wean thee from the world thereby,

(1) Luke 15. 16, &c. Pial. 119. 57.

That clearly thou may'st fee There is no happiness, but I

And heaven's felicity.

VI.

Afflictions (m) fire must thee refine, And try thy Christian grace:

(m) 1 Pet. 4.

Therefore see thou do not repine, If thou would fee my face.

Affliction (n) makes thee mind thy God,

(n) Pfal. 119. 67. 71.

Before thou went to stray: O come thou then and kifs that rod, That leads in heaven's way.

VII.

VII.

(e) 1 Cor. 11. This keeps thee (o) from the fire of hell,

32.
(p) Lam.3.40. This quickens (p) all thy grace:

Pfal. 119. 59. This makes thee (q) fympathize with all

2 Cor. 1.4.
(r) So the prodigal,
Luke 15. 16.
and Maneffeh,
And watch against thy sin;

2 Chron. 33.
This keeps thee from (f) a dreadful day;

(j) Pfal. 94.

That favour thou may'st find.

VIII.

N

B

C

0

P

Ad

He'

The

He'

Con

(s) Mitigation This makes thee (s) mercy more to prize, and sweetning
of the affliction
2 Cor. 1. 4 5. Thou'lt praises to thy God devise,
With all melodious noise.
And even in midst of all thy tears,
I will thee recreate
With cordials, so that all thy cares
Shall quickly be delete.

IX.

(t) Deliverance out of afflictions.

P(al. 34. 19.

Joh. 16. ult.

When all this work is done, (t) then fure

My rod I will remove;

Joh. 16. ult.

For now performed is the cure

In mercy much and love.

(u) Heb. 12.

Th' event (u) shall always prove full good,

The crown is by the cross.

Thou shalt at last find, that indeed
Thou didst sustain no loss.

(v)TheLord's wifdom, power and goodnefs are much glorified, in ordering, reafuring, fanctifying and removing afflictions,

X.

glorified, in out (v) of darkness can bring light;
furing, sanc tifving and

Of bitter I bring sweet:

Confusions all (w) I order right,
And do that which is meet.
The chymist doth of stones extract,
Liquors medicinal;
The sharpest crosses I will make
Ev'n for thy good befal.

(w) As in Jo-Joph's afflictions, Gen. 50. 20. And in the crucifying of our Saviour, making all tend to man's falvation. Acts 4. 12, 27, 28. Rom. 8, 28.

XI.

My wisdom, pow'r and goodness great,
My truth and justice pure,
By this they always glory get,
Therefore thou must endure.
Cast thou (x) thy burden on the Lord,
And he shall thee sustain:

(x) Pfal. 55.

O praise him all with one accord. His grace doth still remain.

SECTION III.

Promises of spiritual and eternal Blessings, being the principal positive mercies.

1.

Ome and admire the chrystal streams
Of overflowing grace!

Admire the radiant rays and beams
Of this fair (a) Phebus face!

He's (b) ocean-full: his treasure great
Is inexhaustible!

The matchless mercies which I get,
Are inexpressible.

(a) CHRIST the Sun of righteoufness. Mal. 4. 2. (b) John 1.164 Col. 1.19.

II.

He'll freely pardon all my fins,

He will make up my peace;

My

Christian privileges, as 1. Juffification. 2. Reconciliation. (c) Joh. 1.12. Eph. 1. 5. Kings for dignity, majesty and victory : and priests for purity and i. e. ftrong, beautiful and lars in Solomons temple, called Jachin and Boaz. 4. Sanctification.

--- 24. 16.

privileges, as My blessed Lord will favour win, I. Justification. 2. Reconciliation.

3. Adoption. For honour, he'll adopt (c) me sure,

(c) Joh. 1. 12. To be the great King's son:

(d) Rev. 1. 6. Yea kings (d) and priests advanc'd sha

(d) Rev. 1.6. Yea kings (d) and priests advanc'd shall be nity, majesty

Believers every one.

III.

piety.
(e) Rev. 1. 12. I'll be a (e) pillar in God's house:
i. e. strong,
beautiful and unmoveable,
as the two pillars in Sololars in SoloThat I may ever live.

with gold (f) of grace he'll me inrich,
and Boaz.
With robes of righteousness
tion.

(f) Rev. 3. 18.

With gold (f) of grace he'll me inrich,
With robes of righteousness

With robes of righteousness

All filk and fattin drefs.

IV.

The man of fin he'll mortify,

He'll wholly me renew:

With his good sp'rit he'll sanctify,

With grace he'll me endow.

(g) Ezek. 36. He'll take from me the (g) stony heart,

A new heart will he give:

So from his laws I'll not depart,
And ever bleffed live.

V.

(b) Rev.3.18.
Renovation of All the faculties of the foul, the judg-What e'er he in his word doth shew; ment, will, conscience and affections.

(i) Pfal. 110.
My will shall to the best incline:
3. Phil.2.13.
Ezek. 36.27.
(k) Acts 15.9.

My conscience (k) shall be pure:

No.

I

F

I'

A

I

M

I'll

11

Fair

Wit

The

As i

Nothing but objects all divine, My foul shall then endure.

VI.

I'll ferve God (1) with a filial fear:
I'll love (m) God and his way:

His faints (n) to me shall be most dear, Who do his words obey.

I'll mourn for sin, I'll hate the same; I shall rejoice (0) to see

All men extolling God's great name, With zeal and fervency.

VII.

I will rejoice to find my LORD, For my great portion.

My hope I'll fix upon his word, Which brings falvation.

I'll blush (p) t' offend my heav'nly King:

My (q) anger's turn'd to zeal.

I shall oppose each sinful thing When grace it shall prevail.

VIII.

Faith, hope, and charity will he Into my heart infuse;

With righteousness and piety, So his way will I chuse.

The rubies (r) are but rubbish, naught;

The sapphire's not so fine, As is the saint from heaven taught Adorn'd with grace divine. (1) Sanffification of the affections, as love, fear, grief, joy, &c. Hof. 2. 5. (m) Mat. 22. 37. (n) Pfal. 16:3. (o) Num. 11.

($) Ezek. 16. 61. (q) Pfal.69.9.

(r) Mal. 3.17. See more of fanctification; in the fong called the Path-way to Paradife;

IX.

(f) Parts of fanctification. by allufion to bodily infir-Ifa. 35, 5, 6.

(1) If I be blind and cannot fee, His eye-falve shall me cure; mities cured. If I be deaf, he'll open ears,

His word and Sp'rit to hear;

If I be lame, he'll make me go Into the ways of GoD;

(1) Pfal. 23.5. His suppling (s) oyl keeps me from toil, 1fa. 61. 3. And makes me walk abroad.

X.

If I be tongue-tyed he'll unty My tongue, that praises sing I may even to eternity,

Unto JEHOVAH King.

(t) Ifa. 55. 1. Both milk (t) and wine he will afford, i. e. All And Manna for my food: things neceffary for fpiritual life.

With chrystal-streams he'll me refresh I'll want (u) nothing that's good. (u)Pfal.34.11.

XI.

(v) Rom. 5. So then with GoD, is made my (v) peace, 1, 2, With men and angels (w) too; (v) Pfal. 34.7. (x) Hol. 2
18. 19. 1 Cor. Each creature (x) then shall me embrace, And all their service do. 3. 21, 22. (y) Eph. 2.18. Access I have (y) to throne of grace, --- 3. 12. (z) John 14. My prayer (z) he doth hear: (a) Pfal. 4. 6. The similings (a) of his blessed face Doth all my spirits cheer.

(b) Job 15.13. Assurance (b) fills me so with joy, Pfal. 23. 4. That I cannot express; Rom. 8. 35. 38. I'm fure nothing can me annoy, No creature more or less.

My

F

I

I

Upon the Estate of Grace.

73

My burgess bill (c) with heav'ns quill Is so confirme'd to me:

(c) i e Chri. Rian liberty. Joh. 8.32, 36.

From Satan, fin, I'll fear none ill, Though they great tyrants be.

XIII.

The moral law with threat and frown, And with its rigid strain,

Brings me no (d) condemnation, No curse, no pinching pain.

And for the (e) ceremonial rite, It never hath me ty'd

For CHRIST fulfilled all of it When on the cross he dy'd, (d) Rom. 3. 1. Gal. 3. 13. Rom, 6. 14 (e) Acts 15. 16. 28.

Col. 2.16,17.

XIV.

Indifferent things (f) they do not bind, If there no scandal be:

I may, or not, if that I find No breach of charity.

Pale death who is of terrors king Unto the reprobate,

CHRIST hath of him bereav'd (g) the sting, (g) 1 Cor. 15 I shall him soon defeat.

(f) Rom. 14 through ut. 1Cor. 8.9,10

XV.

Death's but to me a gate (h) therefore, And passage unto rest,

And harbinger to heaven, to glore;

Which is of all the best. So shall I in that heav'nly (i) quire. For ever bleffed live:

Fulness of joy at his right hand For ever will he give.

(b) Rev. 14. 13.

(i) Pfa! $5.015.

SECTION IV.

Blessings temporal, with the Christian's confidence and holy resolution, upon the consideration of all these gracious promises.

T

And all that it contains,
Whate'er the Universe affords,
And all that there remains.

(b) Pfa!, 8. 6. I'll make all (b) creatures ferve thy turn:

For I'm their fovereign LORD,

I'm Lord of Hosts why should'st thou mourn,

They all obey my word.

II.

Co Pfal. 91. Life, (c) honour, health with ease, and wealth, Prosperity and peace,

Thou shalt enjoy, and ay endure,

Thou and thy blessed race.

Here prosit, pleasure, honour's join'd,

What more can any crave?

From grace to glory he'll conduct,

And never he his leave.

III.

O'er sin and Satan fly:

I'll trust in God, while I have breath,

To have the victory.

N

I'

F

T

My foes he'll trample all alongs, My fin he'll do away: My forrows he'll turn into fongs; Faint fear shall fly away.

IV.

My ways I'll mend: I'll blush t'offend Against such matchless love: I'll suffer all, (e) though he me call With martyrdom to prove. For when this clay (f) is past away And turned into dust,

And turned into dust,
To mansions high he'll make me sly,
In him I'll ever trust.

(e)Ad.20.24.

(f) 2Cor.5.1.

THE

THE

PATH-WAY TO PARADISE, OR, THE

POURTRAITURE OF PIETY, By Patterns and Examples.

Containing a Christian Directory, how to come to CHRIST, so as to find him, and eternal Salvation by him.

IN TWO PARTS.

In the first part of it, are exemplified all Christian duties, as they were practised by the most eminent, pious, and zealous people of God, as they are recorded in the Scripture of the Old and New Testament. In the second part, are set down the several duties themselves, both for matter and manner, &c.

The first part of the best patterns or examples.

SINCE richest treasures all In Christ are (a) found,

In Christ are (a) four Col. 1. 19. And I'm by Adam's fall, Wretched and bound;

(b) Ifa. 7. 14. I'll to (b) Immanuel, Mat, 11. 28.

My fins and forrows tell, My woes I will bewail With mournful found.

11

P

V

I

(i

IT.

I will go fearch and (c) try My former ways.

With grief I'll mourn and pray For mispent days.

(d) Take off iniquity;
Receive me graciously:
So will I render thee

The calves of praise.

III.

I (e) will with Abel give The best I have.

(f) I will with Enoch live, Pious and grave.

And though the world stray;
(g) With Noah I will stay,

And walk in perfect way; Thou shalt me fave.

IV.

And with good (b) Abraham, That faithful man,

Who from his kindred came To Canaan:

I will ev'n at thy call,

My comforts great and small

(i) Disclaim: though Isaac fall, Faith conquer can.

V.

(k) With Jacob's prayer bold,
I will address,
The Angel for to hold,
Till he me bless.

(c) Lam. 3. 40. 1 Cos. 13. 5.

(d) Hof.14.1.

(e) Abel, liberal, fincere, faithful and cheerful in duty, Gen. 4.
4. Heb.11.4.
(f) Enoch firict and holy and was taken up to heaven alive Gen. 5.
24.
(g) Noah's fingularity, Gen. 6. 8.

(b)Abraham's faith and obedience in difpenfing with all worldly comforts at God's call.
Gen. 12. I, 2. 3, 4, 5. &c.
Heb. 11. 8,9.
10, 24. 25.
(i) Gen. 22.

(k) Jacob's fervent and importunate prayer with abfolute dependance on God, Gen. 32-24, to 30.

(1) With as well as in publick, and flands out againft ftrong alluring tentations. Gen.

(1) Joseph sears (1) With Joseph sin I'll fly, Though mortals do not fee:

(m) For thy All-feeing eye Beholdeth this.

(m) Jer. 17.9. Pfal. 139. 5, 6, 7, 8.

(n) Job was eminent for patience, Job 1. 21. --- 13. 15.

(o) Moles meek in his own quarrel Num. 12. 3.

but very zealous in the cause of God Exod. 32. 26.

hood, Num.

25. 8, 9, 10.

VI. (n) With Job that great divine

When he was prest, I'll not at all repine: Patience is best.

As Moses (o) meekness had, When he was hard bested:

This way I will be led To heav'ns rest.

VII.

* Caleb and Joshua Keep straight with GoD.

(p) Phineas stood not in awe, (*) Phineas killeth Zimri Sinners he trod. and Cozbi in the very act of When his zeal waxed hot, whoredom He flew and spared not: and therefore got an everlatting priest- For his reward he got, A firm abode.

VIII.

T

(1

All

(9) I Sam. I. With Samuel from a (9) child 28 .--- 3. 19. I'll consecrate, With spirit meek and mild, I'll separate

> * Caleb and Joshua they two only did not murmur or rebel against God in the wilderness: and therefore they only of all that came out of Egyf entered the land of Canaan, Num. 14. 6. 7, 8 .-- 26. 65.

All I have for the LORD,
What my foul can afford:
As from his facred word
Precepts I gat.

IX.

(r) With David I'll thee call My portion.

In earth and heaven all Thou'rt He alone,

Whom my heart doth desire; As with a flame of fire.

Faith, love and zeal conspire,
O matchless one!

X

(s) As chased hart he pants, After the streams;

So my foul when it wants The warming beams

Of divine majesty:

It thirsts exceedingly,

Till it find fome supply,

Down from the heav'ns.

XI.

† Long didst thou knock and call Both night and day:

Oft did I thee repell, And drive away.

(t) Justly might'st thou depart, And my poor soul desert,

1

(r) David choofing God for his only portion: eagerly and impatiently feeking after him, and delighting in him, Pial. 16. 5. Pfal. 119. 57. Pfal. 73. 25. Phil. 3.8.

(s) Pfal. 42.1.

(1) Cant. 5.6.

Mak-

The Spouse in the Song of Solomon (representing the Church) being a-waked from security, indefatigably seeks after Communion with CHRIST the spiritual bridegroom and undauntedly keeps it, Cant. 5. 1. 2, 3. Rev. 3. 20.

Making me find the fmart, For I did stray.

XII.

(b

Sł

(d

W

(e

T

T

A

I'l

A

T

(g

W

Le

XV.

(u) Cant. 5. (u) But now I know thy voice,
Sweet Jesus stay:

(v) Cant. 5. (v) Thou art my only choice,
4, 5.

Help now I pray.

I'll fleep no more in fin,

But now I will begin

(w) Phil. 3. (w) And strive that prize to win,
Oh that I may!

XIII.

(x) Conftancy (x) Though men me stop and lett in persecutions and a-fainst discouragements, Though they this body beat, Cant. 5. 7.

And make it quell.

Though I should wounded be,

(y) Mat. 16. (y) Though nail'd unto a tree,

24. (z) Acts 20. (z) I'll ever follow the,

IMMANUEL.

XIV.

(Ephraim (a) In fack and fable fuit, and Nineveh repenting, re-Sad fighs I'll fend. turning and reforming, Fast with the Ninivite, Jer. 18. 31. Jonah 3. My ways I'll mend. Toel 2. 13, 14. Mos. 2.18,19. With Ephraim I'll bemoan, My fins with figh and groan, Trespasses every one; Thou'lt favour lend,

XV

(b) Unworthy wretch am I,
That my poor roof
Should thee lodge; but I'll pray,

(c) Help unbelief;

(d) So shall humility
Advance to dignity,
When peevish pride must fly

And stand aloof.

XVI.

(e) Give me faith, that I may
But touch thy hem;
This will my grief allay,
My bleeding stem;

This shall me well restore, From all my sickness fore;

And I will then adore Thy glorious name.

XVII.

I'll with the (f) virgins wife My lamp prepare; At midnight for to rife With loving care,

To meet Christ who is mine With oyl of grace divine,

(g) Light of my works shall shine O Phabus (h) fair!

XVIII.

With Simeon (i) when I find Christ and his grace,
Leaving the world behind
I'll die in peace.

(b) The Centurion with faith, prayer and humility. Mat. 8. 8. (c) Mark 9. 24. (d) Mat. 23. 12. Jam. 4. 6.

(e) The Haemoritess her faith and confidence, Mat. 9.21, 22.

(f) The wife virgins their watching and preparing, Mat. 25. 4, 6, 10.

(g) Mat. 5, 16. (b) That is Christ the Sun of Rightecusness, Mal, 4. 2.

(i) Simeon fweetly repoling and contenting himfelf with CHRIST in life and death, Luk. 2.28,29 (k) The prodigal fon with (k) I'll with the prodigal great compunction returning to his My Father pity shall Father, Luke 15. 17. &c. And send release.

XIX.

(1) The publican, with the poor (1) publican, reverently and fervently fuing for pardon, Luke 18. 13. Or as a flave.

(m) Luke 21. I'll bring the widow's mite (m), 2. 3, 7.

I'll knock at heaven's gate,

CHRIST will have mercy yet

My foul to fave.

XX.

(n) Zaccheus answering Christ's call and reforming, Luke 19. 1, 2, 3. &c.

(n) The contemplation-tree, I will ascend:

That I may Jesus see He'll me defend,

Against the enemy,

That is both fierce and slie;

The Dragon he'll defy, And fuccour fend.

XXI.

Come down Zaccheus then,

He will reply:
Thou'rt a beloved man,

I'll not deny:
This day I'll with thee dine,

I'll give to thee and thine
Salvation: thou art mine,

I'll with thee stay,

XXII.

(0) What goods I purchas'd have By force or fraud:

I will restore again; Thou'lt me applaud.

I'll give of what is mine

To the faints who are thine. Such as in forrow pine, Thy name to laud.

XXIII.

(p) With true Nathaniel That faint indeed, In uprightness I'll deal, So shall I speed:

For thou requires the heart, Which is that noble part;

O do not thou depart, My chiefest good.

XXIV.

(q) With the Centurion, I'll fast and pray: Alms also will I join,

Then I will fay:

Do thou this offering take Though it perfection lack

O do not me forfake, Nor cast away.

(o) Luk 19.5. Non tollitur peccatum, fi non restituatur ablatum. August.

(p) Nathaniel) with fincerity and uprightness of heart. John 1. 47. Prov. 10. 9. --- 23. 26.

(q) The godly centurion with fasting. prayer and alms.

PART II.

Containing especially the matter, and gracious acceptable manner of performance of Christian duties. viz. They must flow from right principles of faith, fear and unseigned love of God, together with a perfect detestation and abhorrency of sin. 2. For the right end, to wit, the glory of GOD, the good of others and salvation of our own souls, 3. In the right manner, to wit, with sincerity or uprightness, humility and self-denyedness, alacrity, readiness, and cheerfulness, zeal and forwardness, constancy and perfeverance: All which are partly delivered in the former examples or patterns; but here again repeated in precepts.

I.

For fuch a grace?

* Can what is infinite

With grains encrease?

(a) P(al 16.2. (a) My goodness not to thee

Extends, for why I fee Thou art still giving me, (b) Yet hast no less.

(b) Rom. 10. 12. Eph.2.4. Rom. 11. 33. 1 Tim. 6.15.

Yet

God's effential glory, perfection and happiness, being infinite, can neither be increased or diminished, but his declarative glory may, as he is more or less owned and served by his creatures.

II.

Yet thou'rt pleas'd King of Kings To condescend,

Poor begger-underlings Thy favour lend;

(c) Lost angels passing by, And choosing such as I,

Thy name to glorify, World without end. 16.---2 Pet. 2. 4. Jude 6.

(c) Heb. 2.

HII.

(d) Give then what thou requires, It shall be thine.

I'll do what thou defires, And not decline.

† Myself I'll consecrate,

To ferve without a date;

Then I'll at heav'ns gate, In glory shine,

IV.

My heart I'll give to thee,

(e) Thou lov'st the same;

(f) My tongue shall magnify Jehovah's name.

(g) Adorning eyes behold

The fea and earthly mould,

The shining stars as gold, In stately frame. (d) Pfal. 119, 18. 32.38,34. God must give to us, before we can give to him.

(e)Mat.22.37. Pfal. 119. 10. (f) Pfal. 57. 7, 8, 9.

(g) Pfal. 8.5. 6.-- 19.1,2.--28.5.

V.

† 1. The first thing commending our services and duties to Gop is universality both of the subject performing, and object performed; first, for the subject, the whole man must be consecrated and devoted to God, Rom. 12. 3.

V.

I'll give my ears to hear Thy facred word; All trivial toys forbear, That men afford. I'll give my hands to do

All thy commands most true, (b) 1Pet.3.21. (b) As my baptismal vow Rom. 6. 3, 4. Binds me O LORD.

VI.

lity of the object, in abstaining from every fin and performing every duty,

(i) Universa- I'll to (i) thy precepts all Have great respect, By thy grace never shall, Thy laws neglect; Pfal. 119.6. No duty tedious call;

> No fin will I think fmall; But answer at a cali, O LORD direct.

> > VII.

Duties to God and man.

God shall be of my choice. The object chief. I'll hear my neighbour's voice,

And give relief.

As myself I'll him love; I'll act for his behoof.

My bowels for him move, That's Christian-proof.

(k) Duties of the first table, towards God. (1) Deut. 26.

See the fcriptures in the the commandments

in the larger Catechism.

I will myfelf (k) apply

(1) Thy name to know. exposition of Myself I will deny,

And earth below.

VIII.

ľ

T

I'

A

I'l

Su

W

Ble

I will have high esteem
Of thee, and fear thy name.
Of my sin I'll think shame
And not approve.

IX.

In God I will delight,
In him rejoice.
Call on him day and night,
With weeping voice.

I'll burn with fervent zeal;
Sing sweet as Philomel
To his praise, I'll not fail

o his praise, I'll not fail With joyful noise.

X.

When he bestows on me
His precious things;
I'll make my praises fly
On soaring wings.

And if his chast'ning rod
On me do make abode;

I'll fee the hand of God, As David fings.

XI.

With (m) David I'll be dumb,
It is thy hand;

Submissive will I come, At thy command.

With Job then will I say

(n) 'Tis thou who takes away,

Blest be thy name for ay, In Israel's land.

M

The first Command-

(m) Pfal. 39.

(n) Job 1. 27.

XII.

XII.

Commandment.

The fecond All Idols I abhor. Thou dost the same:

The third Commandment.

I'll with my heart adore Thy glorious name.

All whereby thou art known Shall be above my own: So shall thou never frown: Thou loves this frame.

XIII.

The fourth Commandment.

I'll keep thy Sabbath well: This is thy day. Thy wonders I will tell. My vows I'll pay. Thy word and facraments, All holy ordinance, With zeal I will advance:

This is thy way.

XIV.

The rest of the Commands.

I will no man injure By force or flight: Never shall I endure To wrong his right. His life and fafety, His goods and chastity, His name advance will I, As in thy fight.

A fecond thing commending our fervice to God, is the ples of faith. fear and love, right end, to wit, God's glory, &c.

XV. found princi- Thou promisest reward To piety. and eyeing the Hell's fire thou hast prepar'd To terrify.

The first is to allure, The other must endure All, who are not found pure T'eternity.

XVI.

I'll not for meer (0) reward * Sent from above; Nor yet for hell prepar'd

Sin disapprove.

These things shall never be Prime motives unto me:

But I will follow thee, (b) Out of pure love.

XVII.

Give me that gracious (q) oyl, I'll run thy way; Serve without any toil, And never stray.

(r) I'll cheerfully go on, Thro' thy great strength alone:

So that prize shall be won, At judgment day.

XVIII.

If I be quite (s) profane, Without all grace; If Laodicea's frame

My heart posses;

M 2

(a) Tob-1. 1, Pfal. 63. 1.

(p) 1Tim. 1.5.

(9) Oy! of grace, Mat. 25. 4. Pfal. 119. 32.

(r) A third requifite in Christian duties is cheerfulness, readinefs or a acrity, Pfal. 33. 1. 2 Ccr. 9.7.

(s) 4. Zeal. forwardnels or fervency. Rev. 3. 16, 17, 19.

Thou'lt

Oderunt peccare boni virtutis amore; Oderunt peccare mali formidine pana, Si non sit poena, virtus tamen effet babena.

^{*} Hope of reward and fear of punishment may be motiva prima, the first initiating motives to obedience, (as human testimony is to faith) but they should not be motiva primaria, the chief motives: but love and fear of God and eyeing his glory, &c.

(t) 5. Prudence, moderation and difexcludes, firft ignorance, remifnefs and preposterous rashness, Pfal. 101, 2.

(u) Rom. 10. 1, 2. (v) Joh. 18. 10. off Malchus's ear without a commission is reproved, tho' in defence of Christ (70) Luke 9.

54. Praying for fire from heaven. (x)6.Chriftian prudence is against unseafonable and preposterous rebukes, Prov. (y) 7. Prudence diffinguisheth betwixt effentials or fundamentals and circumflantials and indifferent things in religion. Rom. 14. (3) 3. Chridistinguisheth betwixt extermal and ipternal duties. Though we can never love &c. yet weak

Christians may read, pray and meditate, &c. to the destruction of the body,

Thou'lt never me receive, But with the world leave: cretion, which Fervent zeal I must have Else no solace.

XIX.

(t) I will deal prudently In perfect way: Peter cutting For though I zealous be, Yet I may stray;

(u) As Fews in ignorance, (v) As Peter's fword did glance,

(w) Or he and John advance When they did pray,

XX.

I'll (x) circumstantiate My sharp rebuke: 9.8. Mat. 7.6. Good counfel fuch as that In facred book.

(y) I will distinguish well, 'Twixt circumstantial,

And * grounding truth, my zeal, So will I look.

XXI.

A fran prudence (z) External duties Must give still place; Mercy not facrifice, Says love and grace. God too much I cannot too much love, Nor yet too holy prove;

Weak

to

M

^{*} To distinguish betwirt estentials and circumstantials in religion.

(a) Weak bodies yet may move Imprudent pace.

XXII.

(b) All disputes frivolous
I will avoid:

(c) Though I were righteous, I'll banish pride.

So prudence with my zeal, Thus will I temper well.

And I will with thee dwell,
O gracious guide.

XXIII.

This I take to be mean'd By Solomon;

When in his book he penn'd This caution;

Where men forbiddeth he † Too righteous for to be,

But all profanity
Hence and be gone.

XXIV.

So with prepared (d) heart

, (e) I'll watch and pray;
I'll not from thee depart

By night or day.

Till my LORD from the fky

(f) With troops of angels fly

(g) Then wo and mifery Shall fly away.

(a) 1 Tim. 5. 23.1 Tim. 4.8. as in excellive reading, fasting, &c.

(b)g. Chriftian prudence shunneth all frivolous and vain janglings and unnecessary difputes, 1 Tim. 1.6. ---6. 20. Col. 2. 8. (c) We should thun all overweening and Pharifaical conceit of cur selves, Job 9. 1fa. 64. 6.

(d) A fixth requ fire in duties is constancy and per feverance in all graces and Christian performances, and to be diligent in the ufe of all prescribed means, fuch as prayer, watchfulness, &c. Mat. 25.4, 1C. (e) Mat. 24. 44 --- 26, 41. 1 Pet. 5. 8. (f,Mat. 25.31.

(g) 1 Cor. 15.

CHRI

† Eccles. 7. 16. No advantage here for profane Ruffians, for we are bound 55 Rev. 20.14. to love God with all our hearts, and endeavour after perfection in holiness, Math. 22. 37. Mat. 5, ult, Phil. 3. 13.

CHRISTIAN MEMENTOS, MEMORANDUMS, or MEDITATIONS.

1

1

L

H

B

T

T

No

To be affixed to several parts of the house, as a help to mortification, watchfulness and continual communion with GoD.

Deut. vi. 6, 7, 8, 9.

And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart. 7. And thou shalt rehearse them continually to thy children, and thou shalt talk of them when thou tarriest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. 8. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thy eyes. 9. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thine house, and upon thy gates.

MEMENTO I.

A Memento to be affixed by the Door, and to be read before we go abroad about our secular employments.

I.

Remember, man, before thou pass the door, That God hath granted thee another day. He gave thee health and peace the night before, Or, hellish siends had catch'd thy soul away. More time thou hast, thy talent to improve; Ev'n for his glory who thy Maker is: Let him then be the object of thy love; And let not transient trisles alter this.

II.

Thou'rt stepping out into a world of sin,
Where Satan slie is still preparing snares;
O then beware of his deceitful gin;
Lest he by slight surprise thee unawares.
No state, no calling, sex or age is free:
No time, no place, but Satan seeks to stain.
And, ah, alas, too prevalent is he:
Watch, watch and pray, that pure thou may'st remain.

III.

Let thy God's glory, be thy chiefest aim;
His holy law the rule of all thy way:
His saints thy fellows, then I may proclaim,
Thou shalt have peace and success all the day.
But if thou do thy gracious God forget.

But if thou do thy gracious GoD forget,
And with loose reins thou let thy fancy range,
Then wonder not, if GoD thy labours lett:
Thou meets a cross, it is not very strange.

IV.

Thou'lt see the broad way full of wretches vile, Toiling themselves their own poor souls to damn,

Not minding death or judgment, heav'n or hell; Nor yet the end why to the world they came. Some Some are profane, and loofe, some bear a shew Of godliness, without the power of grace: Some hereticks, a vile erroneous crew; Some with their factions trouble Zion's peace.

V.

Some Laodiceans, neither cold nor hot, They're neither friends, nor yet CHRIST's open foes:

Into such ways, I pray thee enter not,
And so thou shalt escape their dreadful woes.
Commit thy way to God, he'll thee direct;
In all thy ways, see that thou on him call;
And thus a blessing thou may'st then expect
From God Almighty, comforts great and small.

VI.

In thy converse with men, see thou be just;
Give thou offence to none by force or fraud.
Lose not thy God for gold, which is but dust:
Or Christ in judgment will not thee applaud.

Spend all this day, as if thou hadst no more.

Be ready always, when the LORD shall call:

Thou shall be heir of everlasting glore:

With joy and peace where CHRIST is all in all.

I

I

L

W

II.

A MEDITATION or MEMENTO

To be affixed on the Window.

The fun-light's glorious to our mortal eyes, When from the heav'n he doth disperse his rays.

If fuch a light the creature doth transmit, How glorious then is he who formed it?

If heaven's pavement be so richly deckt,

With precious gems; O what may we expect In upper rooms, where is the dwelling place

Of feraphims and faints; O great folace! Light of the word take thou to be thy guide, In light, for ever then thou shalt abide:

Where CHRIST our light, our life, our joy and peace

Shall with transcendent glory crown thy grace.

III.

Another MEMENTO or MEDITATION for the Window.

Here's light æthereal, * and there's light 1. Natural.

by art;

Light.

Artificial.

There's light of joy and knowledge in the 4 Spiritual.

The God of light do thou with heart adore; And he shall bring thee to the light of glore.

The works of darkness do thou ever flee:
And hellish darkness shall not trouble thee.

IV

IV.

A MEMENTO or MEDITATION, to be affixed at the head of the Table.

Thou may'ft well know by these thy fresh supplies,
Thy body's brittle, and at last it dies.
This earthly food doth hastily decay:
Seek for that meat, which doth endure for ay,
That heavnly Manna which can thee revive,
Tho' thou wert dead, and make thee ever

V.

live.

A MEMENTO or MEDITATION to be affixed on the Muse or Study-house-door.

Amice quisquis huc venis, Aut agito paucis, aut abi, Aut me laborantem adjuva.

Ood friend, whene'er thou comes tom

Do not thy words then multiply;
But help my work, if that thou may;
Or else be gone and post away.
Our life is short, our work is great,
Of our abode we have no date;
Great need have we to watch and pray,
And six us for the latter day.

III.

VI.

A MEMENTO or MEDITATION For the Chimney.

IF thou wouldst shun the fire of hell: Then, seek the godly fire of * zeal.

But let your zeal be attended with knowledge, prudence and moderation.

VII.

AMEMENTO

To be affixed on the Bed, for nocturnal Meditations.

T.

Thy fleep resembles death:
The bed-cloths like thy winding-sheet,
When God doth cut thy breath.
The lying down's interring like;
The darkness like the shade
Of sepulchres, and so the worms
Like sleas about thy bed.

II.

The midnight's like fecurest times,
Before the latter day;
When mortals shall increase their sins,
And zeal doth quite decay.
Cock-crowing's like the trumpet's found,
Which all the world shall hear;
When faith on earth shall scarce be found,
Then, judgment draweth near.

N 2

Mal. 4. 2.

III.

The dawning or the morning sky,
Is like those lightsom signs,
When Christ our King is drawing nigh,
With healing in his wings.
The rising sun is like that time,
When Christ the King of glore.

When Christ the King of glore, Shall come with all his glorious train, And time shall be no more.

IV.

Who shall the godly then solace,
And free them of their pains,
And give them pleasure, joy and peace,
Which evermore remains.
But those who dally with their sins,
And do God's law despise,
Their wo and torment then begins,
They did not mercy prize.

V

Then, enter not into thy bed,

Let not thy foul take rest;
Till that with God thy peace be made:

This is thy only best.
This night may be to thee the last,

Mind, mind mortality.
Thy sleep may, ere the night be past,

With death continued be.

POEMS

ON SEVERAL

DIVINE SUBJECTS.

T

HOLY DREAD.

CAN I in truth believe a God to be, Without adoring his dread majesty? Reigns he exalted with almighty fway, -And shall I fearless be to disobey? Tho' fense of danger did me not controul, A more ingenious force would move my foul; And make me tremble to be base, tho' I Might be audacious with impunity. A parent's frown I never could fustain; A friend's displeasure ever gives me pain; Tow'rds God, then shall I more effronted prove, Outbrave his terrors, flight his dearest love, And, by a fenfeless, daring licence, show, I neither gratitude, nor rev'rence know? No no, my God, the mighty dread of thee Maintain'd and cherish'd in my breast shall be: Collected round my heart, I'll keep it there An antidote against all other fear. Such shining prints of excellence display'd Are seen in all the works which thou hast made, That look I upward, downward, or around, I can't but thee regard with dread profound! But

But when, thy great perfections to descry, I dart my thought beyond the vaulted sky; When midst celestial hosts myself I place, To view the radiant glories of thy face, Ah! how I faint, and sink beneath the weight Of daunting Majesty, and dazling light! And yet my most affecting dread of thee Still is, my God, from perturbation free: It bends my spirit with a pleasant load! Ev'n heav'n would not be heav'n without the dread of God.

II.

HOPE.

I.

I OPE is the breast, by which sustain'd I was in my first tender years: Hope is the staff on which I lean'd, When first I trode the path of cares.

II.

A daring infant, then a man, By hope made bold, with open eyes I ventur'd, and life's gantlop ran, And yet I'm fav'd to my surprize.

TIT.

Hope is to me a fun and shield. Light and protection to me brings:
When troops of danger fill the field,
Hope to surmount them gives me wings.

IV.

Hope is the chariot of my foul, In which, with lofty port, she rides; Up-hill her wheels as swiftly roll As down the torrent's rapid tid

V.

Yea, hope can mount above the skies, And travel o'er the fields of bliss, And as she casts all round her eyes, Say, Soul admire! thy kingdom this!

VI.

My daily food hope still has been, Each morning's manna fresh and good: On hope I live, they little ken, Who say that hope is airy food:

VII

But hope I mean in God alone, For he the weight of hope can bear; When other props we trust, they're gone, And we sink with them in despair.

VIII.

Hope fix'd on Jesus and his grace, Jesus my never failing friend, Who holds the chain of promifes, And bids my hope on them depend.

IX.

O God, my God, the hope, and guide, Both of my youth and riper years, In thee I have, and will confide, Till hope me to fruition bears.

III.

CHRIST All in All.

I.

JESUS is my life and foul;
JESUS fills my heart with joy;
Tides of pleasure through me roll,
Love all my passions does controul,
If thoughts of Jesus me employ.

II.

Jesus darts his heav'nly rays
Through my glad heart to give me light:
If Jesus his fweet face displays,
I'm blest a thousand nameless ways;
My heav'n I find in Jesus' sight.

Jesus is my dear support, When in distress I humbl'd ly; With joys of the divinest sort Jesus does my soul comfort; Jesus raises me on high.

IV.

Jesus by his facred beams
My black'ned foul makes white as fnow.
I'm wash'd, however odd it feems,
My Jesus, by those purple streams
Which gushing from thy sides did flow.

Jesus did my peace procure, My peace maintain dear Jesus shall, Jesus all my woes does cure; Of heav'n my Jesus makes me sure: Jesus is my All in All.

IV.

Christ the Substance of the Levitical Priesthood.

THE true Messiah now appears,
The types are all withdrawn:
So fly the shadows and the stars
Before the rising dawn.

II.

No fmoaking fweets, nor bleeding lambs, Nor kid, nor bullock flain; Incense and spice of costly names Would all be burnt in vain.

III.

Auron must lay his robes away,
His mittee and his vest,
When God himself comes down to be
The off'ring and the priest.

IV.

He took our mortal flesh, to show The wonders of his love; For us he paid his life below, And prays for us above.

V

Father, he cries, forgive their sins,

For I myself have dy'd;

And then he shows his open'd veins,

And pleads his wounded side.

V.

Godly forrow arising from the Sufferings of Christ.

I.

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed!

And did my Sov'reign die?

Would he devote that facred head

For fuch a worm as I?

Thy body flain, sweet Jesus, thine,
And bath'd in its own blood,
While all expos'd to wrath divine,
The glorious sufferer stood!

Was it for crimes that I had done He groan'd upon the tree? Amazing pity! grace unknown! And love beyond degree!

Well might the fun in darkness hide, And shut his glories in, When God the mighty Maker dy'd For man the creature's sin.

Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my eyes to tears.

VI.

But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

VI.

RELIGIOUS DILIGENCE.

What! flothful when your All's at stake When heav'n's the prize you lose or gain? What! for one pleasant moment's sake The hazard run of endless pain! Rouse, rouse my soul, thy pow'rs unite And bend them in the enterprize: Who conquer would, they first must sight; The road to heav'n is steep and strait, Thorny, and up the hill it lies.

II.

On earth no paradife there's now, No rich, luxuriant, teeming foil, Where all things needful for us grow, Without our care, without our toil. Man's doom'd his daily bread to eat With ard'ous labour, painful strife, Nor must he hope, nor is it meet, That without labour, without sweat, He should obtain the bread of life.

III.

Heav'n is from us a distant clime, And difficult our journey thither; Short and uncertain is our time,
And rough the way, and rough the weather.
One day in cradle, next in tomb;
What need we have to run, to fly,
That to our everlasting home
We safe and timeously may come,
Before the dark'ning of our sky?

IV.

What! shall we think a heav'n of joys. Shall prostituted be to such Who value them less than the toys Which now they labour for so much? Shall yawning wishes, faint essays, Be thought enough to merit blis? Who e'er by such unlikely ways, His fortunes here propos'd to raise, And shall a heav'n be got for less?

V.

Religion is a work of time,
Of ard'ous labour, close pursuit;
The tree of life we first must clime,
Before we eat the pleasant fruit:
For since perfection is attain'd
By rising steps, and growing grace,
Hold fast we must, what we have gain'd,
In view of the exalted end,
And daily, hourly, mend our pace.

VI.

Immortal made, what should we mind So much as immortality? Of beings, for a heav'n design'd, What but a heav'n the care should be?

Roufe,

Rouse, rouse, my soul, thy moments fly, Time bears thee on its wings away, Awful eternity is nigh! Thy task pursue, th' occasion ply, Oh! great's the loss but of a day.

VII.

The Shortness and Misery of Life.

T.

OUR days, alas! our mortal days, Are short and wretched too; Evil and few *, the Patriarch says And well the Patriarch knew.

Gen. 49. 9.

II.

'Tis but at best a narrow bound
That heav'n allows to men,
And pains and sins run thro' the round
Of threescore years and ten.

III.

Well, if ye must be sad and sew,
Run on, my days, in haste;
Moments of sin, and months of woe,
Ye cannot sly too fast.

IV.

Let heav'nly love prepare my foul, And call her to the skies, Where years of long salvation roll, And glory never dies.

VIII.

The Law and Gospel distinguished.

I.

The law commands, and makes us know What duties to our God we owe;
But 'tis the gospel must reveal
Where lies our strength to do his will.

II.

The law discovers guilt and sin, And shews how vile our hearts have been; Only the gospel can express Forgiving love, and cleansing grace.

III.

What curses doth the law denounce Against the man that fails but once? But in the gospel Christ appears, Pard'ning the guilt of num'rous years.

IV.

My foul, no more attempt to draw Thy life and comfort from the law; Fly to the hope the gospel gives: The man that trusts the promise lives.

IX.

Moses, AARON, and Joshua.

I.

On holy Sinai given,
Or fent to man by Moses' hands,
Can bring us safe to heav'n.

II.

'Tis not the blood which Aaron spilt, Nor smoak of sweetest smell, Can buy a pardon for our guilt, Or save our souls from hell.

III.

Aaron the priest resigns his breath, At God's immediate will; And in the desart yields to death Upon th' appointed hill.

IV.

And thus, on Jordan's yonder fide
The tribes of Ifrael stand,
While Moses bow'd his head and dy'd
Short of the promis'd land

V

Isrel rejoice, now * Joshua leads,
He'll bring your tribes to rest;
So far the Saviour's name exceeds
The ruler and the priest.

Joshua the same with Jesus, and signifies a Saviour.

X.

God glorified in the Gospel.

I.

THE Lord, descending from above,
Invites his children near;
While pow'r and truth, and boundless love
Display their glories here.

II

Here, in thy gospel's wond'rous frame
Fresh wisdom we pursue;
A thousand angels learn thy name
Beyond whate'er they know.

III.

Thy name is writ in fairest lines,

Thy wonders here we trace:

Wisdom thro' all the myst'ry shines,

And shines in Jesus' face.

IV.

The law its best obedience owes
To our incarnate God;
And thy revenging justice shows
Its honours in his blood.

V.

But still the lustre of thy grace
Our warmer thoughts employs,
Gilds the whole scene with brighter rays,
And more exalts our joys.

F

H

N

H

W

XI.

Miracles in the Life, Death, and Resurrection of Christ.

Ĩ.

Behold, the blind their fight receive!
Behold, the dead awake, and live!
The dumb fpeak wonders, and the lame
Leap like the hart, and bless his name!

II.

'Thus doth th' eternal Spirit own And seal the mission of his son; 'The father vindicates his cause, While he hangs bleeding on the cross,

III.

He dies; the heav'ns in mourning stood; He rises, and appears a God: Behold the Lord ascending high, No more to bleed, no more to die!

IV.

Hence and for ever from my heart I bid my doubts and fears depart; And to those hands my foul resign, Which bear credentials so divine.

XII.

Sight through a Glass, and Face to Face.

T.

Love the windows of thy grace Thro' which my Lord is feen, And long to meet my Saviour's face Without a glass between.

II.

Oh, that the happy hour were come,
To change my faith to fight!
I shall behold my Lord at home
In a diviner light.

III.

Haste, my Beloved, and remove These interposing days; Then shall my passions all be love, And all my pow'rs be praise.

XIII.

The Deceitfulness of Sin.

I.

S IN has a thousand treach'rous A rts
To practise on the mind;
With flatt'ring looks she tempts our hearts,
But leaves a sting behind.

II.

With names of virtue she deceives
The aged and the young;
And while the heedless wretch believes,
She makes his fetters strong.
III.

She pleads for all the joys she brings, And gives a fair pretence; But cheats the soul of heav'nly things, And chains it down to sense.

So on a tree divinely fair Grew the forbidden food; Our mother took the poison there,

And tainted all her blood.

XIV.

The Death of the Righteous.

PANTING the good Theophilus did ly, Long time prepar'd, and willing now to dy; When, with a heav'nly brightness in his face, The silent triumph of his finish'd race, He to his mourning friends his speech address'd, And thus discloss'd the raptures of his breast;

"Kind, but mistaken,--grieve no more for me, "Nor mourn the day, which I rejoice to see.

"Can you remaining on the shore bewail, "That to a crown, tho' leaving you, I fail?

"Should tears unseemly cloud one's nuptial "day,

"Because the bridegroom takes his bride away?

"Is this your kindness?-would to God ye knew." What glorious scenes now open to my view!

" Immanuel's fair land, by its own light

"Discover'd, nor far distant, charms my sight:

"Thither to wing her flight my foul prepares, "Farewell all earthly joys, all earthly cares;

"Farewell my friends, nor grudge that now "we part;

"Immortal pleasures rush into my heart!

"I fink, I faint beneath the blissful load!
"I die, like Moses, by the * kis of God?

"Dear Saviour, if such pledges now are giv'n,
"Oh! what shall be my everlasting heav'n!"

XV.

^{* &#}x27;Tis a faying of the Jews on Deut, xxxiv. 5. that Mofes died by the kifs of God.

XV.

A Death-bed Ejaculation.

BEYOND mortality, my faith
Descries a glorious scene,
Where, ever new, and rapt'rous joys
My soul shall entertain.

A deep, and rapid stream divides:

Death is the name it bears;

But o'er it, Christ has laid a bridge

For heav'nly passengers.

O'glorious city of my God,
Which stands on yonder shore:
My heart within me leaps, for joy
To think of passing o'er:

O'er to the new Jerusalem,
Where I with CHRIST may dwell;
And ever hear his own dear lips
His own dear story tell.

Where, in his presence, I shall find The heav'n that I desire; And the sweet glories of his face Eternally admire.

Come welcome death, dissolve the bands
That hold me here from home.
Come angels, come celestial guard,
Come Jesus, quickly come.

F KINGT S.